Atelier Chagall

Region: Paris Sleeps: 6

Overview

Just moments from the storied streets of Montmartre, Atelier Chagall brings a striking sense of space and design. Spanning across three levels, this light filled apartment pairs artistic interiors with generous proportions, creating a unique and atmospheric base for up to 6 guests.

Three double bedrooms each benefit from a private en suite, while the master bedroom also features a large dressing room. Full air conditioning extends throughout the apartment, including every bedroom, offering welcome comfort during warmer Parisian days. Home automation allows guests to adjust the lighting and ambience with ease, adding a contemporary touch to the stylish and eclectic interiors.

The crowning feature is the private rooftop terrace. Slip into the jacuzzi, linger over drinks as the city lights begin to glow, and take in remarkable 360 degree views stretching from the nearby Sacré Coeur to the Eiffel Tower in the distance.

Set in Paris' characterful 9th arrondissement, the apartment is ideally placed for discovering Montmartre's artistic heritage, historic streets and celebrated café culture. Anvers Métro station is just a few minutes away, while the Montmartre funicular is around 600m from the property.

For families or friends seeking an extraordinary Paris stay, Atelier Chagall offers space, comfort and a rooftop perspective that puts the capital firmly centre stage.

Location & Local Information

Set in Paris' characterful 9th arrondissement, Atelier Chagall places guests within easy reach of the atmospheric streets of Montmartre. This captivating corner of the capital offers an authentic taste of Parisian life, rich in history and cultural and culinary experiences, with bustling streets and the famous hill of Montmartre rising nearby.

Begin your explorations at the charming Carrousel de Saint-Pierre (600m), before climbing the steps towards the magnificent Sacré-Cœur and its elevated setting above the city. The heart of the Montmartre neighbourhood is around a 20-minute walk away uphill. Alternatively, head to Funiculaire Gare Basse (0.6km) and take the funicular up the hillside, a fun way to reach this celebrated Parisian quarter.

Once in Montmartre, spend time discovering its historic streets, artistic heritage and quintessentially Parisian atmosphere. Wander around the neighbourhood at your own pace, stopping to admire its distinctive architecture and soaking up the ambience of one of the capital's most evocative districts.

For adventures further across Paris, Anvers Métro station (350m) provides convenient connections to other parts of the city. Gare du Nord is also around a 15-minute walk away, placing one of Paris' major transport hubs within easy reach of Atelier Chagall.

What we love

- The private rooftop terrace is a real showstopper, with a jacuzzi and spectacular 360-degree views encompassing Sacré-Cœur and the Eiffel Tower
- Artistic, light-filled interiors complement three comfortable double bedrooms, each with a private en-suite, while full air conditioning runs throughout
- Discover the historic streets, artistic heritage and café culture of Montmartre just moments away
- Only a few minutes on foot to a metro station or hop on the Montmartre funicular around 600m from the apartment

What you should know...

- Across three floors with quirky stairs, this artistic and stylish apartment is better suited to adults or families with older children/teens. Guests need to be able to manage the open-sided, floating stairs.
- This is not just a holiday apartment – it is the owner's primary residence in a building where the neighbours know each other and most live there year round – we ask guests to respect both the apartment and its neighbours.
