Overview

Finca del Jinete is an exceptional Andalusian estate offering a rare combination of space, privacy and character across 450 private hectares. Designed for guests who want to experience the countryside on a remarkable scale, the finca brings together beautifully considered interiors, extensive outdoor spaces and the freedom to enjoy the estate entirely at your own pace.

Inside, eight individually designed bedrooms are joined by generous shared spaces, including a kitchen, dining room, bar and living room with fireplace. Traditional Andalusian architecture, natural materials and light-filled rooms give the property a strong sense of place, while air conditioning, heating and high-speed WiFi provide modern comfort throughout.

Outside, the estate really comes into its own. Guests can spend time around the heated swimming pool and terrace, explore patios and courtyards, or discover gardens planted with vegetables, fruit trees and herbs. The wider grounds are home to horses, cows, donkeys, goats, sheep, rabbits, chickens and birds, alongside dedicated equestrian areas and open countryside.

With space for both quiet stays and special gatherings, Finca del Jinete offers a distinctive way to experience rural Andalusia with family and friends.

Location & Local Information

Finca del Jinete is set within 450 private hectares of Andalusian countryside, giving guests an unusual amount of space to explore without ever needing to leave the estate. This is a place to spend much of the day outdoors, following tracks and trails on foot or seeing the landscape from horseback. The finca's equestrian areas and extensive grounds make riding a natural part of the experience, while walks can take you through fields, past fruit trees, vegetable gardens and areas where horses, cattle, donkeys, goats and sheep roam.

When it is time to explore further afield, Morón de la Frontera provides an introduction to the towns of inland Seville. Set between the Sierra Sur and the surrounding agricultural plains, its historic streets are marked by white houses, churches and former convents, with the remains of Morón Castle overlooking the town. The Church of San Miguel is another of its most notable landmarks, with origins dating back to the 16th century.

A day in Ronda offers a very different experience. One of Andalusia's best-known historic towns, it is built around the dramatic Tajo gorge, crossed by the 18th-century Puente Nuevo. Beyond the bridge, visitors can explore the historic quarter, old city walls, churches, palaces and the town's Moorish heritage, while the surrounding Serranía de Ronda opens up another landscape of hills and valleys to explore.

What we love

- With 450 hectares of private farm land surrounding Finca del Jinete, the sense of peace and immersion into nature is incredible
- The estate has been beautifully designed to preserve its original character without compromising on modern comforts
- The opportunity to explore the land on horseback is truly special
- A tennis court is going to be built at Finca del Jinete for Spring 2027 - please enquire if you wish to know more information!

What you should know...

- Four of the eight bedrooms are located in the main house, and four are located in the two separate annexes - ideal for guests looking for more privacy
- The swimming pool is not fenced, meaning children require supervision
- We strongly recommend hiring a car whilst staying here
- The caretaker of the finca lives onsite in a separate cottage not visible from the main house
- There are lots of animals living on the finca, in enclosures and free roaming in the fields
