Overview

Chalet Montume is a contemporary six-bedroom chalet in Combloux, combining generous living spaces with impressive Mont Blanc views and excellent access to the slopes. Spanning 286 sqm and sleeping up to twelve guests, with accommodation best suited to ten adults and two children, it is a welcoming base for families or groups looking to enjoy the French Alps.

Large windows fill the main living spaces with natural light, while the open-plan kitchen creates a sociable setting for relaxed meals together. After a day on the mountain, guests can settle beside the fireplace or retreat to the cosy cinema room. Each of the six bedrooms has its own ensuite bathroom, offering plenty of privacy across the group.

Outside, a spacious balcony and terrace make the most of the chalet's mountain setting, with sweeping views towards Mont Blanc. There is also a garden, barbecue and private outdoor parking. Ski days are particularly convenient, with a slope just 50m from the chalet providing access towards the Beauregard lift, while a private ski locker offers useful storage for equipment.

Location & Local Information

Chalet Montume is set in Combloux, a traditional Haute-Savoie village with far-reaching views towards Mont Blanc. Ski access is particularly convenient, with a slope just 50m from the chalet leading towards the Beauregard lift. From here, guests can explore the Les Portes du Mont-Blanc ski area, linking Combloux with Megève-Le Jaillet and La Giettaz, while the wider Évasion Mont-Blanc area opens up an extensive network of pistes across neighbouring resorts.

Combloux itself retains a welcoming Alpine village character, with local restaurants, shops and traditional Baroque heritage. Whether heading out for a full day on the mountain or enjoying the village atmosphere, Chalet Montume makes a well-placed base for a ski holiday beneath Mont Blanc.

What we love

- The close proximity to the slopes makes heading out for a day of skiing wonderfully straightforward.
- Large windows frame the mountain scenery while filling the living spaces with natural light.
- Chalet Montume's six ensuite bedrooms offer excellent privacy when travelling with family or friends.
- A dedicated bunk bedroom provides a fun sleeping space for younger guests.

What you should know...

- While Chalet Montume sleeps up to twelve guests, the accommodation design is for a maximum of 10 adults and 2 children due to the size of the bunk beds in bedroom 6.
- The Master Bedroom has an ensuite bathroom with a bathtub and shower, while the remaining five ensuite bathrooms have showers only
- Exposed timber features prominently throughout the interiors, contributing to the chalet's traditional Alpine character
- Children should be supervised at all times when out on the balcony as the wooden terrace can be slippery when wet or frozen in the height of winter.
- A car is strongly recommended for getting into town, as although public transport is available nearby, services can be limited and less reliable from the chalet's location. Taxi services are also available.
