Villa Azuraccia

Region: Southern Corsica Sleeps: 14

Overview

Villa Azuraccia offers a stylish retreat where contemporary design, generous living spaces and glimpses of the Mediterranean create a wonderful setting for a holiday with family or friends. Set within a residential estate near Bastelicaccia, this impressive villa accommodates up to 14 guests, with air-conditioned interiors and an extensive terrace designed for relaxation and entertaining.

At the heart of the villa, a spacious open-plan living and dining area provides a welcoming place to gather, with comfortable seating and a sleek, fully equipped kitchen perfect for preparing leisurely meals. Six bedrooms offer flexible accommodation, including an independent suite with its own kitchenette. Most bedrooms benefit from en suite shower rooms, while the master bedroom even enjoys a glimpse of the sea. A fitness room and sauna add another dimension to your stay.

Outside, the magnificent 12m infinity pool takes centre stage, surrounded by a large terrace. Spend sun-drenched afternoons swimming, then fire up the barbecue for relaxed evenings together. For those wishing to explore Corsica's coastline, a semi-rigid motorboat is also available to hire separately, subject to availability.

Villa Azuraccia enjoys a great location for discovering this part of Corsica. Bastelicaccia is just 6km away, with local restaurants and everyday amenities, while the beautiful beaches of Porticcio invite lazy days beside turquoise waters. Venture into the spectacular Prunelli Valley for mountain scenery and traditional villages, or explore Ajaccio, 16km away, with its colourful markets, historic streets and waterfront restaurants. Ajaccio Airport is only 15 minutes away by car.

Whether sharing long summer lunches, unwinding beside the pool or discovering some of the region's remarkable landscapes, Villa Azuraccia offers the space, comfort and freedom to experience this part of the island at your own pace.

Location & Local Information

Only a 15-minute drive from Ajaccio Airport, Villa Azuraccia enjoys a perched setting in residential estate near Bastelicaccia, where rural surroundings meet the irresistible charm of Mediterranean island life. You can even catch a glimpse of the sea from the main terrace and master bedroom.

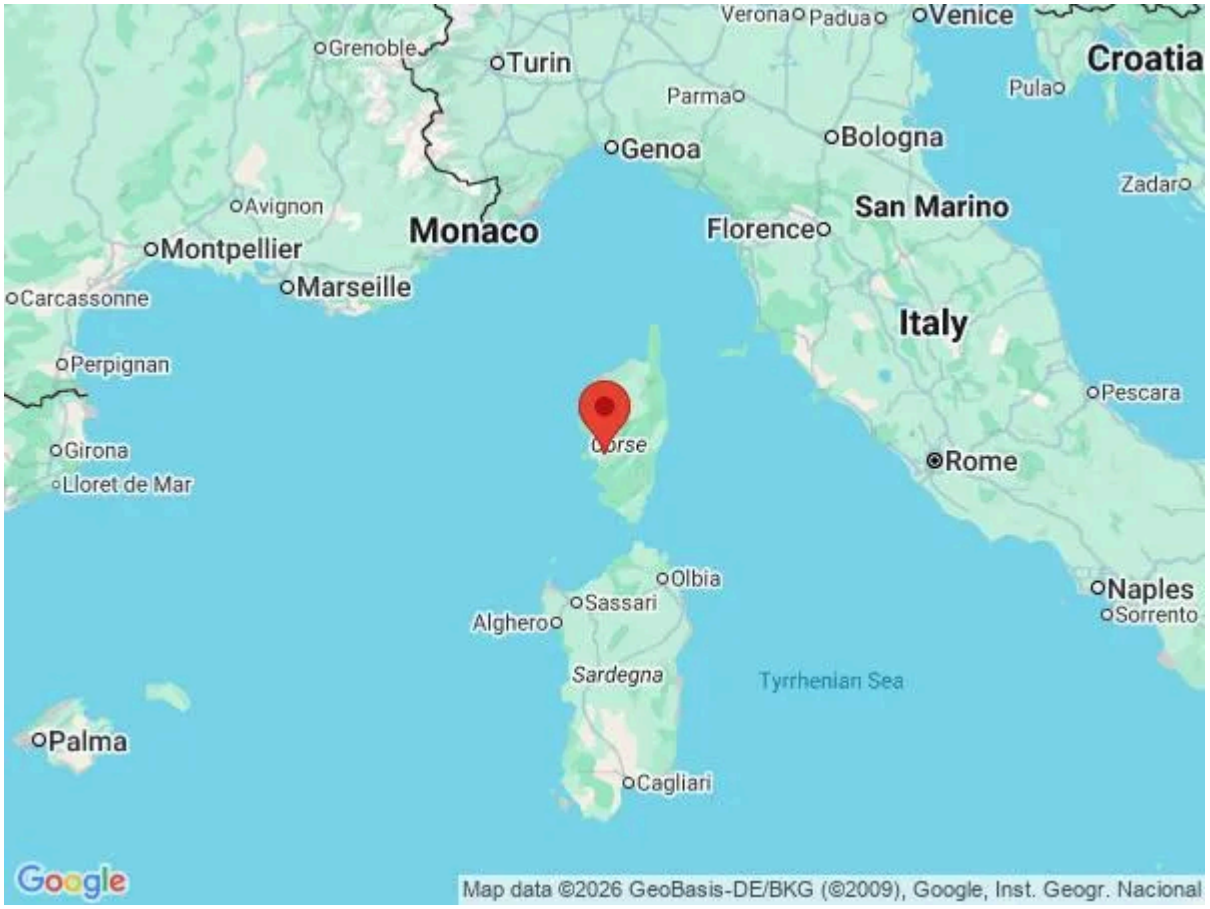

Bastelicaccia (6km) itself is home to a Spar supermarket and a handful of restaurants, whilst there are further amenities in Ajaccio (16km). Bastelicaccia is also known as the gateway to the spectacular Prunelli Valley, making it an excellent starting point for discovering the island's natural beauty.

For a glimpse into local heritage, visit the Écomusée de Bastelicaccia (6km), which celebrates the area's traditional way of life and cultural identity. Beyond the village, the Prunelli Valley reveals a captivating landscape of rugged mountains, wooded hillsides and winding rivers. Scenic drives through the valley offer magnificent views, while its traditional villages provide a fascinating insight into Corsica's rural character.

For sun-soaked days beside the Mediterranean, Plage de Porticcio (11.5km) offers an inviting stretch of coastline, with sparkling turquoise waters. Nearby Porticcio (15km) is a lively seaside resort, renowned for its beautiful beaches, waterfront restaurants and relaxed holiday atmosphere. Enjoy leisurely summer lunches overlooking the sea, explore the coastline or simply unwind beneath the Corsican sunshine.

A visit to Ajaccio (16km) brings a wonderful blend of history, culture and coastal charm. Napoleon Bonaparte's birthplace is home to colourful streets, bustling markets and the fascinating Maison Bonaparte museum. Wander through the atmospheric old town, admire the historic citadel and discover inviting cafés and restaurants serving Corsican specialities.

With idyllic beaches, captivating countryside and cultural treasures nearby, Villa Azuraccia offers a superb setting for an unforgettable Corsican escape.
