Maison Bellefeuille

Region: France Sleeps: 10

Overview

Maison Bellefeuille is a beautiful Basque-style villa offering space, privacy and effortless relaxation. Close to the village of Arcangues, this impressive house sits within a hectare of private landscaped grounds. Sleeping up to 10 guests, it is a wonderful setting for families and friends seeking a traditional yet stylish abode close to the Atlantic coast.

Inside, generous living spaces create a welcoming atmosphere for spending time together. A living area, dining room and fully equipped kitchen provide everything needed for leisurely holidays, while a separate TV and reading lounge offers a quiet corner to unwind. Five en suite bedrooms are thoughtfully arranged across three levels, including a ground-floor double bedroom and three comfortable bedrooms upstairs. On the lower level, an independent apartment with its own kitchen, living area and double bedroom offers additional freedom and privacy.

Outside, the pretty garden invites long afternoons beneath the Basque sunshine. The impressive 12 x 5 metre swimming pool is perfect for refreshing dips. Gather around the generously equipped terrace for leisurely lunches, with a plancha for preparing delicious meals together.

Maison Bellefeuille enjoys a wonderful location only 500m from Arcangues, celebrated for its traditional architecture, historic château and scenic golf course. The fashionable seaside resort of Biarritz is just 8km away, offering Atlantic beaches, surfing, boutiques and excellent seafood restaurants. Explore the coastal villages of Bidart and Guéthary or follow the spectacular Sentier du Littoral walking trail as you embrace the incredible scenery of the Basque coastline.

Whether enjoying mornings in the garden, exploring the Basque coastline or sharing memorable evenings around the terrace, Maison Bellefeuille offers a delightful balance of countryside charm and coastal discovery.

Location & Local Information

In the Basque region, Maison Bellefeuille is located close to the picturesque village of Arcangues (500m), where traditional Basque architecture, green hills and a rural atmosphere create an enchanting backdrop. Discover the village's historic château and beautiful golf course, with sweeping views towards the Pyrenees, and soak up the charm of this characterful corner of south-west France.

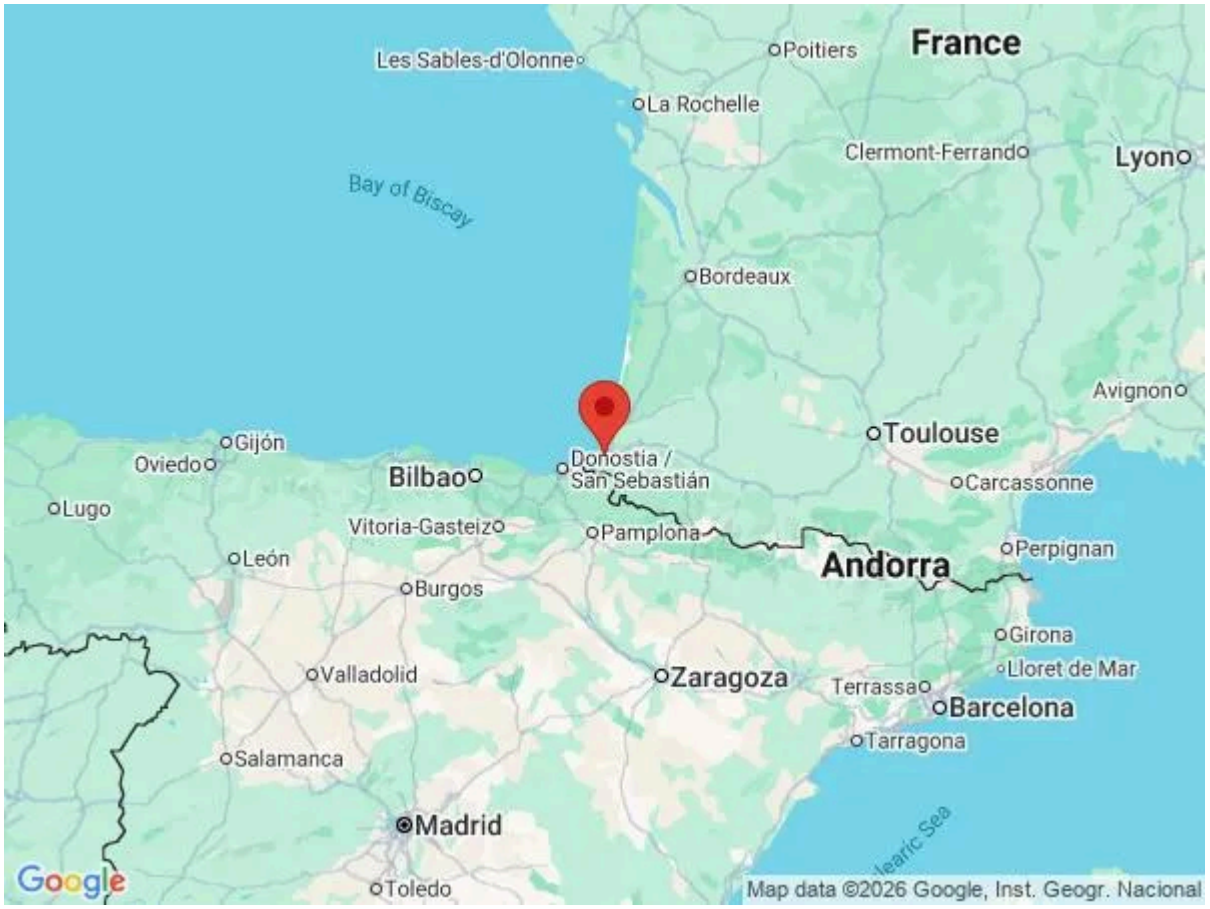

The glamour of Biarritz (8km) is within easy reach, with its elegant seafront, fashionable boutiques, seafood restaurants and magnificent Atlantic coastline. Spend sun-drenched days exploring the area's surfing beaches, including the iconic Plage de la Côte des Basques, renowned for its waves and spectacular coastal scenery.

Discover the pretty Basque village of Bidart (7.5km), with its traditional square and dramatic ocean views, before continuing to Guéthary, a former fishing village celebrated for its laid-back surfing atmosphere. Keen walkers can follow sections of the scenic Sentier du Littoral, a coastal trail stretching from Bidart towards the Spanish border at Hendaye, passing breathtaking cliffs, beaches and picturesque seaside towns.

Around 30 minutes by car, the historic fishing ports of Saint-Jean-de-Luz and Ciboure invite leisurely exploration, with colourful harbours, traditional architecture and waterfront restaurants. Inland, the beautiful Basque villages of Sare and Ainhoa are also within approximately half an hour, offering whitewashed houses adorned with red and green shutters. For a memorable mountain excursion, take Le Train de La Rhune, a charming cog railway climbing towards panoramic views across the Basque countryside and Atlantic coast.
