Penthouse Fortezza

Region: Corfu Sleeps: 6

Overview

Located in the heart of Corfu Old Town, Penthouse Fortezza is a three-bedroom apartment offering panoramic views across the town's rooftops, historic fortresses and the Ionian Sea. Occupying the fourth and top floor of a quiet building, the property combines contemporary furnishings with traditional architectural details, providing comfortable accommodation for up to six guests. With two balconies overlooking the surrounding landmarks, the penthouse offers a convenient base for exploring Corfu Town and its surroundings.

The interior has been thoughtfully renovated, featuring pale stone flooring, neutral tones and carefully selected furnishings throughout. The open-plan living and dining area provides a welcoming space to relax, with linen sofas, patterned armchairs, framed watercolours and a Smart TV. French doors open onto the balcony, allowing natural light into the room and offering views across the Old Town. The adjoining dining area includes a table seating six, while the fully equipped kitchen features modern Miele appliances, including an induction hob, oven, dishwasher and fridge-freezer and wine cooler. A Nespresso coffee machine and breakfast island with seating for four provide additional convenience.

Penthouse Fortezza accommodates six guests across three double bedrooms, each furnished with an upholstered headboard, orthopaedic mattress, bedside reading lights and individual air conditioning. Two of the bedrooms also benefit from direct balcony access. The property features three bathrooms, finished in a selection of marble, with walk-in glass showers, marble vanities, heated towel rails and illuminated mirrors.

Outside, the penthouse features two balconies with different views. The front balcony overlooks Corfu Town, its historic rooftops, the bell tower of St Spyridon, the Old Fortress and the Ionian Sea. On the opposite side, the rear balcony enjoys views towards the New Fortress and the sea. These outdoor spaces provide a setting for enjoying a morning coffee or taking in the surrounding views throughout the day.

With its central location, comfortable interiors and views of Corfu's historic landmarks, Penthouse Fortezza offers a practical and well-appointed base for families or groups of friends wishing to experience the atmosphere of Corfu Old Town.

What we love

- The fantastic central location places guests among the charming cobbled streets of Corfu Old Town, where traditional tavernas, lively cafés, boutique shops and historic buildings are waiting to be discovered.
- History lovers will enjoy exploring the town's fascinating Venetian heritage, with landmarks such as the Old and New Fortresses, the Liston promenade and the impressive Spianada Square all within easy reach.
- The apartment's beautifully designed interiors combine contemporary comforts with traditional touches, creating an inviting space for families and groups of friends to relax after a day of exploring.

What you should know...

- Guests can drive directly to the entrance of the building, making arrival, drop-off and luggage handling particularly convenient.Parking is available either in public street parking spaces in the surrounding area, subject to availability, or in paid private parking facilities around central Corfu and the Liston/Spianada area.
- As parking availability in Corfu Town can be limited during busy periods, guests arriving by car may wish to allow a little additional time.
- There are a small number of steps at the entrance of the building before reaching the lift. From there, the lift provides convenient access to the 4th floor a particularly useful feature for a top-floor residence in central Corfu.
- Access to both the main building entrance and the apartment level is secured through an electronic access system.
- Housekeeping is provided every three days.
