Maison de la Pergola

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 10

Overview

Maison de la Pergola is a beautifully restored stone bastide where traditional character meets stylish comfort. Just a short drive from Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, this spacious home offers an idyllic setting for families and friends to enjoy leisurely days beneath the Provençal sunshine, with landscaped gardens, a private swimming pool and a shaded pergola perfect for long summer lunches.

Thoughtfully renovated throughout, the house features a light-filled living room with a fireplace and direct access to the terrace. A fully equipped kitchen opens onto the dining area, creating a sociable space for gathering together. Five beautifully appointed bedrooms include four with king-size beds and en suite facilities, while a separate guest house offers an additional double bedroom, bathroom and kitchen, ideal for those seeking extra privacy.

Outside, the enclosed grounds invite guests to embrace the pleasures of outdoor living. Spend sun-drenched afternoons beside the impressive saltwater swimming pool, enjoy leisurely meals in the shade or simply unwind in the pretty gardens.

Maison de la Pergola is located just 4.5km from Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, celebrated for its bustling Wednesday market, café terraces and artistic heritage. Explore the remarkable Roman ruins of Glanum, discover the beautiful landscapes of Les Alpilles or visit the traditional village of Eygalières. The medieval hilltop village of Les Baux-de-Provence is another memorable excursion.

Whether exploring Les Alpilles or sharing precious time with loved ones, Maison de la Pergola offers an exceptional base for discovering the beauty and pleasures of Provence.

Location & Local Information

In the Provençal countryside, Maison de la Pergola enjoys a picturesque setting surrounded by the beautiful landscapes of Les Alpilles. Just a short drive from Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (4.5km), this holiday abode offers the perfect opportunity to experience the charm of Provence, from olive groves and rolling hills to picturesque villages and artistic towns.

Only 5–10 minutes away by car, Saint-Rémy-de-Provence is a delightful town known for its cobbled streets, café terraces, galleries and colourful weekly market on a Wednesday morning. Discover its artistic heritage, famously associated with Vincent van Gogh, or explore the nearby Roman archaeological site of Glanum.

The magnificent landscapes of Les Alpilles provide a wonderful backdrop for scenic walks and countryside excursions. Explore the charming village of Eygalières (8.5km), with its traditional stone houses and peaceful atmosphere, or venture to Les Baux-de-Provence (14km), a spectacular hilltop village celebrated for its medieval ruins and panoramic views.

For memorable day trips, the historic cities of Avignon and Arles are both just over 45 minutes away by car. Admire Avignon's magnificent Palais des Papes or discover the remarkable Roman monuments of Arles, also known as the gateway to the wild landscapes of the Camargue.

The enchanting Luberon is equally tempting, with its vineyards, dramatic scenery and perched villages. Discover iconic Gordes (35km) and beautiful Ménerbes (31km), where honey-coloured stone buildings and sweeping countryside views capture the essence of Provence.
