Arctic Hideaway

Region: Levi Sleeps: 10

Overview

Located amongst the beautiful landscapes of Levi in Finnish Lapland, Arctic Hideaway is a spacious retreat offering modern comforts and stunning views of the surrounding fells. With stylish interiors and plenty of space to relax, the lodge is ideal for families and groups looking to experience the region throughout the year.

Sleeping up to ten guests across four bedrooms, with four double beds and an additional sofa bed, the lodge features warm, contemporary interiors with large windows overlooking the surrounding landscape. The welcoming living area centres around a cosy fireplace, while the fully equipped kitchen and dining space provide everything needed for enjoying meals together. Guests can also make use of the Smart TV, wine cabinet and private Finnish sauna, perfect for relaxing after a day outdoors.

Outside, the private hot tub offers a wonderful spot to unwind beneath the Arctic sky, with the chance to see the Northern Lights during the winter months.

Arctic Hideaway is ideally positioned for exploring Levi's many attractions, from skiing and snowmobiling in winter to hiking and outdoor adventures during the warmer months.

Location & Local Information

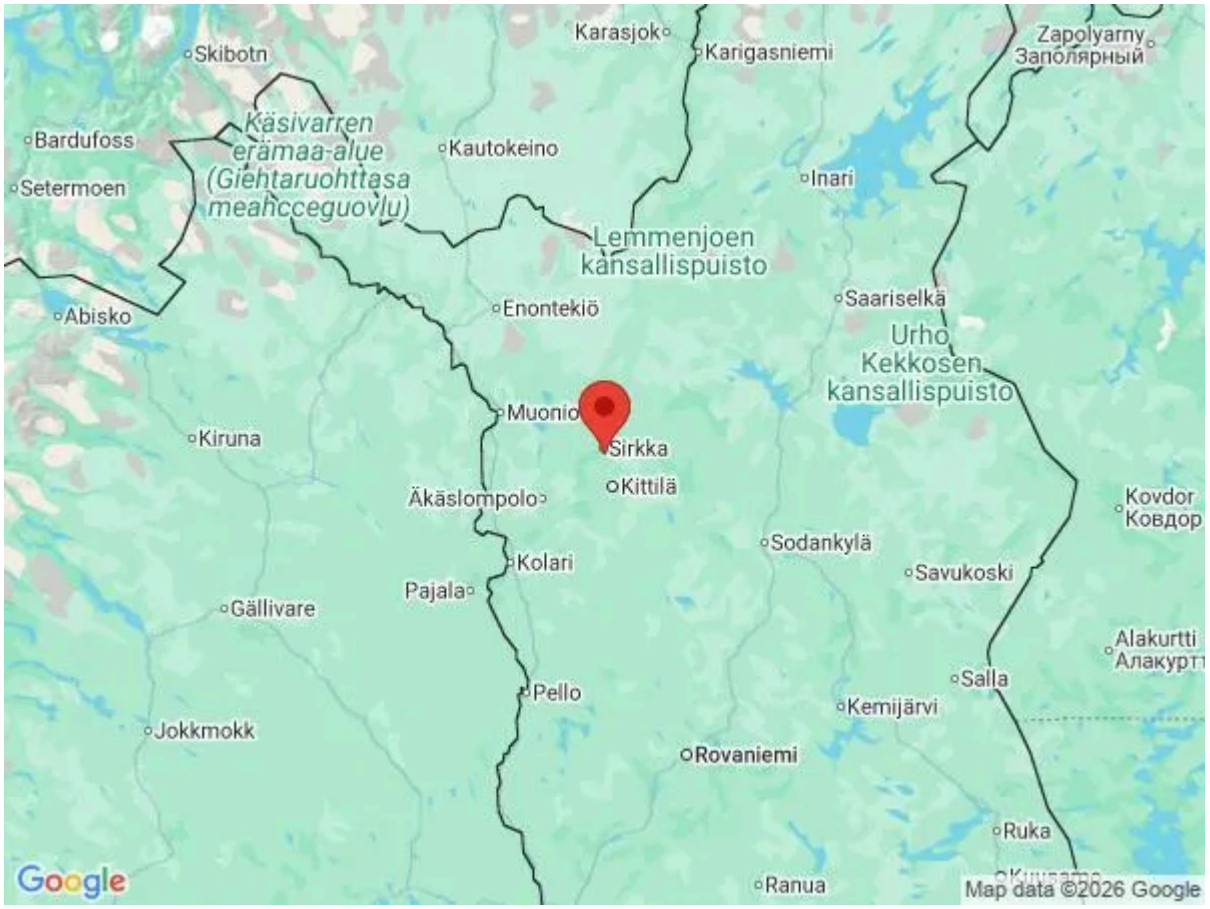

Surrounded by the forests and picturesque landscapes of Finnish Lapland, Arctic Hideaway enjoys a peaceful setting in Levi, one of Finland's most popular year-round resorts. The nearby resort centre offers a variety of restaurants, cafés, shops and supermarkets, along with ski equipment hire and other useful amenities.

During winter, Levi is known for its excellent downhill and cross-country skiing, with opportunities to enjoy snowmobiling, husky sledding, reindeer safaris and Northern Lights excursions. In summer, the surrounding forests and fells provide scenic trails for hiking and cycling, while fishing and golf are also popular activities.

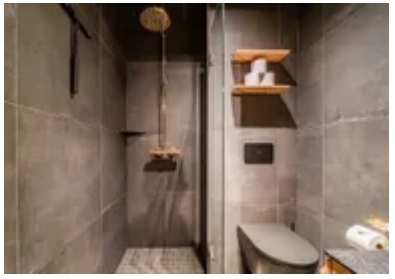

For a glimpse into Lapland's cultural heritage, the Samiland exhibition at Levi Summit explores the history and traditions of the indigenous Sámi people, including their connection with reindeer herding. With activities, attractions and beautiful scenery to enjoy in every season, Levi offers something for visitors of all ages.
