Mas des Treilles

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 8

Overview

Perched above the village of Bonnieux, Mas des Treilles captures the essence of Provençal living, with views across the Luberon countryside towards Mont Ventoux. Surrounded by mature gardens and fragrant greenery, this characterful stone mas exudes traditional charm, offering an attractive stay in one of Provence's most sought-after settings.

Inside, terracotta floors, exposed wooden beams and natural light create a warm, welcoming atmosphere. The spacious living room, complete with fireplace, provides a wonderful place to unwind, whilst the traditional kitchen connects to a vine-shaded dining terrace. Four thoughtfully furnished bedrooms (three doubles and a twin) and three bathrooms provide comfortable accommodation for families and friends.

Outside, the gardens invite guests to embrace the gentle rhythm of countryside life. Wander along rustic stone pathways, find a quiet corner beneath the trees or gather for meals on one of the terraces. The generous swimming pool offers an irresistible spot for sun-filled afternoons. A pétanque court adds an authentic Provençal touch.

Just a short drive from Bonnieux, in the heart of the Luberon, Mas des Treilles is ideally placed for discovering the region's celebrated villages, including Lacoste, Ménerbes and Roussillon. Two renowned French restaurants are within walking distance, while Apt's lively Saturday market is just 13km away. Vineyards, scenic walking trails and traditional village markets offer endless opportunities to explore.

Whether enjoying long summer lunches or restful evenings star gazing, Mas des Treilles promises a characterful Provençal escape.

Location & Local Information

In the heart of the Luberon, Mas des Treilles enjoys a pretty setting on the outskirts of Bonnieux, one of Provence's most picturesque hilltop villages.

Food lovers are particularly well catered for, with two highly regarded restaurants within walking distance. Here, guests can savour exquisite Provençal cuisine in beautiful surroundings - do check opening dates/times in advance and book ahead

A short drive brings you to Bonnieux (2.5km), where winding cobbled streets reveal inviting cafés, traditional bakeries and artisan boutiques. Friday mornings are especially delightful, when the village comes alive with its colourful market, showcasing fresh local produce and regional specialities.

Beyond Bonnieux, discover the enchanting villages of Lacoste, Ménerbes and Goult, each offering historic architecture, atmospheric streets and beautiful countryside views. Roussillon (12km) is particularly memorable for its striking ochre-coloured buildings and dramatic red cliffs. Meanwhile, Apt (13km) is well worth visiting for its lively Saturday morning market.

The surrounding landscape invites leisurely exploration, whether following scenic hiking trails, discovering local vineyards or seeking out breathtaking viewpoints across the Luberon. With its combination of rural charm, gastronomic delights and Provençal character, Mas des Treilles is perfectly placed for an unforgettable holiday.
