Mas du Grand Horizon

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 10

Overview

Surrounded by olive groves, fragrant pines and oak trees, Mas du Grand Horizon enjoys an exceptional setting in the heart of Provence. Set within 1.6 hectares of private grounds, this beautifully renovated country house gazes across the rolling Luberon landscape.

This elegant abode combines traditional Provençal character with understated sophistication. The light-filled main house features warm, welcoming interiors, natural materials and soft, calming tones. The spacious living and dining area opens onto sun-drenched terraces, while four comfortable bedrooms and three modern bathrooms provide flexible accommodation for families and groups of friends. A fifth bedroom can be found in a delightful guest apartment with its own lounge, kitchenette and shower room, part of a summer house with billiard table.

Outside, the heated swimming pool takes centre stage, framed by generous terraces and uninterrupted countryside views. A dedicated pool house with a lounge, changing facilities and a shower room makes leisurely afternoons effortless. The shaded dining terrace and a gas barbecue provides the perfect setting for relaxed meals as the evening light settles over the olive trees.

Just 7km from the celebrated hilltop village of Gordes, Mas du Grand Horizon is ideally positioned for discovering the treasures of the Luberon. Explore Gordes' winding streets, restaurants and colourful market, visit the historic Abbaye de Sénanque or venture to the beautiful villages of Roussillon, Ménerbes and Bonnieux. Scenic walking trails, cycling routes and local vineyards offer endless opportunities to experience authentic Provence. Mas du Grand Horizon offers a wonderful base for experiencing the beauty and gentle rhythm of life in southern France.

Location & Local Information

Set in beautiful grounds of olive groves, oaks and pine trees, Mas du Grand Horizon enjoys an idyllic rural setting on the edge of a tiny hamlet, surrounded by the natural beauty of the Luberon. The iconic village of Gordes is a 7km drive away.

Even closer, Cabrières-d'Avignon is just under 2km away with its bakery and small épicerie. Nearby Coustellet (4.5km) offers further shops, a couple of supermarkets and a delightful Sunday morning farmers' market.

Gordes is one of Provence's most beautiful hilltop villages. Wander through its cobbled lanes, discover inviting cafés and restaurants, explore the weekly market and admire the breathtaking views across its honey-coloured stone houses. Don't miss the enchanting Abbaye Notre-Dame de Sénanque (8.5km), nestled in a picturesque valley renowned for its lavender fields.

The surrounding Luberon countryside is dotted with captivating villages, including Roussillon, Ménerbes, Bonnieux and Lacoste. Spend leisurely days exploring art galleries, sampling local wines at traditional domaines or enjoying long lunches on sun-drenched terraces. For outdoor enthusiasts, scenic walking trails and cycling routes wind through rolling hills, vineyards and fragrant countryside, while picturesque drives reveal the timeless beauty of the Luberon at every turn.

Further afield, discover the antique shops and waterways of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (14km), the artistic heritage of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (33km) or the magnificent Palais des Papes in historic Avignon (35km).
