Maison Pistache

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 12

Overview

The gentle rhythm of Provençal life takes centre stage at Maison Pistache, a beautifully reimagined family home in the village of Eygalières. With pretty views of Les Alpilles, thoughtfully curated interiors and the attentive service of a boutique hotel, this exceptional home captures the warmth, colour and convivial spirit of southern France.

The work of a Parisian interior architecture and design studio, the interiors celebrate natural materials, rich textures and carefully considered furnishings. Six ensuite bedrooms offer comfort and privacy, while a generous living space encourages families and friends to gather. There's also a library with a good-sized work space and ultra-fast Wi-Fi. At the heart of the home, a superbly equipped kitchen invites leisurely cooking and shared meals, complemented by daily breakfast, housekeeping and a dedicated concierge service.

Outside, the swimming pool lies in the heart of the landscaped garden, with a shaded terrace, summer kitchen and outdoor bar setting the scene for long lunches and evening aperitifs. For family moments, discover the cinema and gaming lounge, while a gym with Reformer alongside a sauna and cold plunge bring a wellness experience to your stay.

Just a two minute stroll from the centre of Eygalières, Maison Pistache places the pleasures of Provence within easy reach. Browse the village's Friday market, discover independent food shops and dine at excellent local restaurants. Scenic walking and cycling routes wind through Les Alpilles, while the galleries, boutiques and lively markets of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence are just a short drive away.

Whether gathering beneath the vine-clad terrace, enjoying an afternoon beside the pool or exploring the surrounding countryside, Maison Pistache offers a wonderfully personal way to experience Provence, with all the comforts of a private home and the thoughtful touches of a discreet hotel.

Location & Local Information

In Eygalières, one of Provence's most picturesque villages, Maison Pistache offers an fantastic setting for experiencing the charm of life in Les Alpilles. Located on one of the roads leading to the village, within a 200m stroll guests can immerse themselves in authentic Provençal life, wandering along pretty streets, enjoying leisurely lunches and discovering the wonderful local shops.

Eygalières is a delight for food lovers, with everything from a lively brasserie and little pizzeria to refined gastronomic restaurants. The village boasts a bakery, butcher's, cheese shop, small supermarket and independent shops selling wines, olive oil and seasonal produce. Friday mornings bring the much-loved weekly market, perfect for filling your basket with Provençal specialities before strolling home. Larger supermarkets can be found in Orgon, Cavaillon and Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, approximately 10 to 20 minutes away by car.

The surrounding countryside of Les Alpilles is beautiful with scenic walks directly from the village and more challenging hikes along trails including the nearby GR6. Active guests can enjoy cycling, tennis and pétanque, while golf courses and a treetop adventure park with paintball offer further entertainment within a leisurely drive. Bicycle hire is available in Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, with delivery potentially arranged for an additional fee.

Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (12km) is celebrated for its art galleries, bustling Wednesday market, inviting bistros and café terraces. Other memorable excursions include the dramatic hilltop village of Les Baux-de-Provence (21km) and the spectacular immersive exhibitions at Carrières des Lumières. Discover the historic streets of Arles (36km), enjoy wine tastings at local vineyards or venture towards the beautiful Luberon villages of Gordes (33km) and Ménerbes (30km).

To help guests make the most of their stay, a thoughtfully curated House Guide is shared before arrival, featuring favourite local addresses, insider recommendations and inspiration for discovering this enchanting corner of Provence.
