Chateau De Garmeaux

Region: Picardy & Nord-Pas de Calais Sleeps: 17

Overview

Just south of the river Oise sits the village of Villers-Saint-Frambourg-Ognon, where the pastoral charm of this Picardy château will win your heart. Work and play are equally at home in this serene, country-style home just 45 minutes outside of Paris.

Up to 12 guests can stay in the château and appreciate the modern comforts, like the recently re-done en suite bathrooms and updated kitchen. Outside, there is a pretty stone terrace with tables, where you can dine al-fresco beside the neatly kept garden. Children will have plenty of playtime in the large garden, or on the trampoline and swing-set. Larger groups can also rent the separate annexe located next to the pool, which sleeps an additional 5 guests.

The location of this château leaves nothing to be desired; all within an hour's drive you'll find the historical commune of Senlis (6 km), the castles and Musée Condé at Chantilly (17 km), Paris (60 km), and the Palace of Versailles (75 km). But there's no need to travel far afield - local walks through the forests of Halatte, Compiègne and Ermenonville will also delight you and yours.

The village of Villers-Saint-Frambourg-Ognon has kept its authenticity since the first Lords of Ognon took up residence. In 1526, François 1st took hunting expeditions in the area, right in the heart of the "three forests" Halatte, Ermenonville and Chantilly.

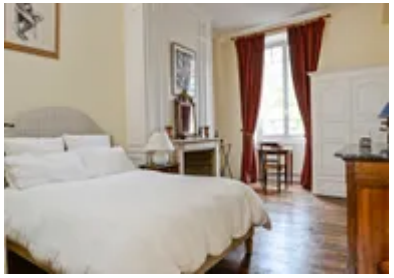

The house is also designed to accommodate business seminars and equipped with a dedicated room with a large screen, and catering for meals.

Château de Garmeaux is only 20 minutes from Paris-Charles-de-Gaulle Airport and 50 minutes from Paris-Beauvais-Tillé Airport.

Location & Local Information

Located 20 minutes from Roissy and 50 minutes from Paris, 6 km from Senlis.

An ideal spot from which to visit the beauties of the area, with the old town of Senlis, the castles of Chantilly, Pierrefonds Ecouen and Abbeys of Chaalis and Royaumont.

For children, Asterix and Disneyland Park are reachable in half an hour.

You can make a return trip to Paris in the day, to see the latest exhibitions, galleries, or do a spot of shopping.

The area is a golfer's paradise: Raray, Chantilly, Mortefontaine, whilst polo players and riders will be ideally suited as well with the nearby Stables Balagny, of Chantilly and Fleurines.

Many pleasant walks can be taken in the close by forests of Halatte, Compiègne, Ermenonville, Chantilly with Rousseau's Parc at Ermenonville.

If you want to go shopping, Chamant (3 km from Villers-Saint-Frambourg-Ognon) has fresh fruit and vegetables, fresh bread, meat, fish, cheese and wine and you can buy your newspapers. You can also go to Senlis to the supermarket, Bio shop and small traditional French traders with specialties of the region. The owner can indicate where to find super fresh eggs and poultry, and where to find the best chef, if you need one!

Saint-Maximin is a big center for all kind of shops and fast food: Decathlon, Fnac, Truffaut, H&M, a pharmacy, Volkswagen, etc.

To get to Villers-Saint-Frambourg-Ognon, your best flying to Roissy and renting a car. Or drive your car on the highway that goes from Lille to Paris, come out at Senlis, take the direction of Compiègne, turn right, cross Chamant and take Villers-Saint-Frambourg-Ognon's direction. You can also take the train any time of the day from Paris to Chantilly or Creil or Pont-Sainte-Maxence (half an hour), and then come by taxi (15 mins).
