Overview

Step into a world of rustic elegance with Chalet Sol, a breath-taking French ski chalet that perfectly blends traditional Alpine style with modern sophistication and convenience. While staying at Chalet Sol, you can be assured of total peace and quiet as the chalet is located on a prestigious gated estate that can only be accessed by residents. The care and mastery offered by the Chalet Sol team has allowed them to elevate this breath-taking four-bedroom chalet well beyond your typical Alpine chalet escape.

Split over three floors, there is ample room for you and your guests to make yourself at home and enjoy your time in Val d'Isère in style. At ground level, your main living space is a comfortable combination kitchen and lounge separated by a small set of steps. The living room has comfortable sofas that wrap around the wall of the room to point toward a blazing log fire and a flat-screen TV. Access to a charming outdoor terrace is provided through large patio doors behind the seating area. To the rear of the dining space, a fully-equipped kitchen is available for you to use whenever you like. Whether whipping up an energising breakfast before hitting the slopes or enjoying casual bites around the dining table, you'll have what you need. And if you don't, the Chalet Sol team can likely acquire it for you.

Four good-sized bedrooms are spread across the upper levels three of which contain double beds and TVs while the final bedroom is ideal for children with four traditional built-in cabin-style bunk beds. All rooms except the bunk room have a private en-suite bathroom, while the bunk room has access to a separate shared bathroom. Each room is dressed uniquely, with soft comforting colours helping you to relax and unwind at bedtime. While at Chalet Sol, luxury is never far away with an in-home Scandinavian sauna and Turkish Hammam promising a wonderful way to relax after a long day on the mountain. During your stay, you'll have the support of several staff to ensure your holiday goes off without a hitch. The dedicated chalet manager and chalet team will work tirelessly behind the scenes before you even arrive - arranging for and collecting lift passes for your group prior to your arrival while also making sure any additional requests are catered to where possible. In fact, your chalet manager will even do your grocery shopping in advance of your arrival if you let them know what to get.
