

Villa Amari

Region: Vale do Lobo Sleeps: 8

Overview

Located on a quiet residential estate, Villa Amari is the perfect choice for a tranquil villa holiday on the Algarve. This traditional four-bedroom villa was recently renovated to a high standard, with little touches throughout that truly make you feel at home during your stay.

As you arrive at the villa, you'll be impressed with the beautiful leafy surroundings with mature pine trees surrounding Villa Amari. Access to the villa is granted via a private gate with plenty of secure parking space for your vehicles.

Entering Villa Amari, a spacious living room opens up to you with plenty of comfortable seating gathered around a large coffee table which can easily be used as a gaming table throughout your stay. The far corner of the room contains a dining area with a large round dining table surrounded by stylish chairs. Large patio doors open onto a shaded terrace overlooking the pine trees and surrounding area with an additional dining table.

Adjacent to the main lounge is a smaller room with a satellite TV and DVD player which can be used to relax and unwind with your favourite shows and movies.

The newly installed kitchen is well equipped with everything you need to make meals for the group. The kitchen also contains a washing machine and dryer should you need to do any laundry during your stay.

Four simply-decorated bedrooms are yours to choose from across two levels of the villa. Your master bedroom is located on the ground floor close to the living room and has a double bed with a private en-suite bathroom.

Three additional bedrooms are located on the lower level of the villa, accessible via a staircase. All rooms on the lower level contain double beds and have access to the sun terrace leading down to the swimming pool. Two rooms have private en-suite bathrooms whereas the third has access to a shared bathroom adjacent to the room.

Outside, your terrace has a built-in barbecue area for outdoor dining and a large private swimming pool with a sun terrace furnished with comfortable sun loungers.

Location & Local Information

Villa Amari is a popular choice for holidaymakers who're looking for a laidback holiday in the sun close to beaches without the liveliness of traditional beach destinations. Located in the quiet Vale do Lobo area which is largely residential.

Getting to the villa is relatively straightforward with Vale do Lobo well signposted and well-connected by local and national roads, making it an easy addition to a wider trip around the country or as a standalone destination. If you're heading to Vale do Lobo straight from Faro Airport, the journey is around 25 minutes in a car.

As the area surrounding Villa Amari is residential, there are view attractions in the immediate area so you'll benefit from renting a car during your stay if you want to go out on day trips and excursions. A car will also be useful for getting around Vale do Lobo for your day-to-day amenities and activities.

Your nearest beach is the gorgeous Praia de Vale do Lobo and for golfers, two popular golf courses are located in close proximity from Villa Amari; Quinta do Lago and San Lorenzo.

What we love

- Villa Amari really feels like a home away from home
- There's lots of space at Villa Amari, so everyone can do their own thing without feeling like they're crowding one another
- The view of the pine trees and surrounding landscape from the terrace is really beautiful

What you should know...

- Villa Amari is located in a quiet residential area so may not be suitable for guests looking for a livelier holiday
- If you wish to explore beyond Vale do Lobo, you'll benefit from renting a car to get around
- The region is relatively hilly so getting around on foot may be difficult for small children and guests with mobility issues in places
