

Le Logis Fleuri

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 10

Overview

Le Logis Fleuri is a charismatic 18th century farmhouse that has been lovingly restored to give guests a true authentic experience in this delightful region. Located between the lively town of Apt and the nearby quaint village of Saignon this villa offers striking views over the Luberon National Park and is an ideal base for exploring the captivating natural wonders of Provence.

Step into Le Logis Fleuri and be greeted by its unique allure, beautiful furnishings, and breathtaking views. With country style furnishings combined with authentic features like wooden beams, this house is both comfortable and homely and exudes a traditional ambiance, radiating understated splendour.

Unwind in the spacious dining room, perfect for enjoying memorable evenings together. The living area boasts character, as does the kitchen with its colourful tiles and terracotta floor. The main house features two bedrooms, while the second wing offers three further bedrooms, comfortably accommodating a total of 9 guests.

The garden is a true delight, offering a private swimming pool, a stone terrace, and ample space to revel in. Spend sunny summer days reading beneath a fruit tree or spreading out a blanket on the grass. After a visit to the local market, unleash your inner chef and prepare a delicious meal before savouring it al-fresco on the shaded terrace.

Situated just off a country lane, the house is surrounded by pine trees, countryside and vineyards. While tucked away in a nice spot, it remains conveniently close to the market town of Apt and the stunning village of Saignon. Apt is renowned for its candied fruit and local products, offering winding pathways adorned with ancient fountains, perfect for leisurely strolls and embracing a slower pace of life.

Le Logis Fleuri also serves as an excellent starting point for various day trips to neighbouring villages and cities. Within a 30-minute drive, you can discover the breathtaking beauty of Ménerbes, Lacoste, and Lourmarin. Vibrant Avignon and Aix-en-Provence, filled with museums, galleries, restaurants, and bars, are just over an hour away, providing a bustling city experience.

For those seeking extraordinary natural beauty, a visit to Sainte-Croix-du-Verdon is highly recommended, located a 90-minute drive away. This peaceful haven perched on the hillside, overlooking the vast lake of St. Croix, offers crystal-clear waters, secluded coves, secluded coves, and inviting beaches—truly a sanctuary to rejuvenate and recharge.

Location & Local Information

Le Logis Fleuri is situated in a picturesque location, between the lively town of Apt and the nearby quaint village of Saignon close to the Luberon Nature Park. It is ideally positioned for a holiday in France's beloved Provence region.

Apt, just a short drive away from the house, hosts a delightful Provençal market every Saturday morning, renowned throughout the region. Here, you can explore a wide variety of fresh peaches, fragrant herbs, artisanal cheeses, crusty bread, and the local delicacy of candied fruit. Take a leisurely stroll through the historic centre, immersing yourself in its quaint ambiance, and find a cozy café to relax in while observing the world around you.

The hilltop village of Saignon is also within close proximity, offering an array of shops, cafés, and a charming boulangerie. Meander through its narrow streets, discovering ancient fountains, picturesque squares, and beautiful old houses, including the 12th-century church. Adventurous hikers can ascend to the top of the village's rock, which dominates the valley, treating themselves to breathtaking views of the Luberon region and, on clear days, even a glimpse of the Alps.

Embark on a day of village hopping, starting from Buoux and continuing through Bonnieux and Lacoste, all the way to Ménerbes, to truly savour the essence of Provence. Each village has its own unique authenticity, boasting traditional markets, ancient architecture, and hidden gems waiting to be explored.

The captivating landscape and villages of the Luberon region exude an enduring charm, while the local lavender, cherries, olives, truffles, and wines have achieved worldwide acclaim for good reason. This area is a haven for avid hikers, with numerous popular trails to choose from. Notably, the GR92 hiking path runs close to Le Logis Fleuri, offering an ideal opportunity for walkers to indulge in their passion.

However, Provence's allure extends beyond its idyllic countryside. Within a 2 hour drive, you can reach the sparkling coastline of France, particularly the renowned holiday destination of Marseille. Embrace the sun-drenched beaches, relish the fresh seafood, and immerse yourself in the vibrant nightlife this city has to offer. For a glimpse into the traditional fishing trade, rise early and visit the Old Port, where fishermen unload and sell their daily catch. Alternatively, venture into the city centre to savour delectable local cuisine. As the evening unfolds, indulge in the lively atmosphere that lingers into the early hours, with numerous summer beach clubs and bars providing nonstop music.
