Region: Dordogne Sleeps: 6

Overview

City-dwellers who don't require a complete escape to the country will adore this villa in the Dordogne, on the outskirts of Bergerac in lovely residential area just 2km from the centre. Here you'll revel in the large lawned garden and private pool, while remaining close enough to the city centre to walk there. This villa comes with urban comforts; you'll especially appreciate the large reclining sofa and ultra-modern kitchen. Two covered outdoor terraces invite you to dine al fresco, soaking in a little bit of the French countryside feeling before you make your way into town.

Walk (or bus) just 2 km to Bergerac's Old Town, where the winding streets hold medieval architectural treasures in addition to the boutiques and restaurants. A few Michelin-recommended restaurants are in the Old Town - La Table du Marché Couvert and L'Imparfait. At the end of your evening, you might take in a show at Le Music Hall for a burlesque-style spectacle.

Bergerac is also the centre of the region's wine production; you must visit the Musee du Vin to learn all about the local appellation. Rent a car for a day trip (at least) to explore the dozens of wineries radiating out from Bergerac along the Dordogne...you'll be so glad you did.
