Chateau Romenay

Region: France Sleeps: 20

Overview

Located in a 70,000 m2 park in the heart of charming Burgundy, Château Romenay is a magnificent property dating back to 1571.

Sleeping up to 20 guests in impressive en-suite bedrooms, it is celebrating its grand opening in Spring 2016, offering the most modern facilities along with an amazing range of leisure outdoor and indoor activities.

Surrounded by centenary trees, extensive fields and a private fishing lake, you get the impression of having a kingdom just for yourself.

Tastefully designed and renovated previously by its former Swiss owner, the château has recently benefitted from the skilled, expert restoration of its current owners. The final outcome is astonishing, with a more than perfect balance between tradition and comfort.

The main features of the property include a gorgeous salt treated, heated swimming pool (11X6m) equipped with an automatic cover. For those who wish to keep fit and relax, there is a luxurious wellness area in the dependences with a Sauna, steam-room, massage area and a well-equipped gym.

The spacious kitchen offers ample space to organize exciting cooking courses with experienced and passionate local Chefs!

To the joy of children and adults alike, amenities include several games such as table tennis, billiard room, play station, chess, board games, volleyball and football areas, bikes and more.

To top it all, the château enjoys extreme privacy, with no neighbours in sight, yet it's just three minutes away from the gorgeous medieval village of Romenay, where you will find restaurants, shops and other tourist amenities.

A short and easy drive will also take you to Tournus, which is considered the capital of gastronomy in Burgundy. Your only dilemma will be which Michelin starred restaurant to choose!

Location & Local Information

Chateau Romenay sits in the South of Burgundy, only 3 km away from its homonymous village, where you will find: three restaurants, a supermarket, a bakery, a bank, a post office, a tourist office as well as local shops, newsagents, a pharmacy, three doctors and a hairdresser.

Tournus (15km) is a nice little town with an interesting Abbey and cloister, as well as a lively Saturday morning market, not to mention its excellent Michelin starred restaurants.

In Louhans (15kms) we recommend a visit to the Monday morning market (the biggest one in Burgundy) strolling down the charming pedestrian streets with 156 arcades, where you will find local products and plenty of women clothes and accessories.

The strategic location of the Chateau is also ideal to explore the vineyards of Burgundy, Beaujolais and Jura.

A bit further afield are Macon (30 km), Beaune (75 km) and Lyon (100 km), which also hosts the closest airport (120 km). Alternatively, you can fly to Geneve (150 km).

What we love

- A beautiful 16th century château surrounded by vast and glorious parkland featuring a heated pool, private fishing pond and century old trees.
- The wellness area benefits from a gym, sauna and steam room.
- Families will adore the games room with table football, ping pong, darts, PS3 as well as the little playground, pétanque court and trampoline outside.
- Food-lovers take note of the Michelin starred restaurants in Tournus as well as one of Burgundy's most wonderful markets in the picturesque town of Louhans.
- Despite the château's private surroundings, it's only a 5-minute drive to the gorgeous medieval village of Romenay.

What you should know...

- Guests may use the private fishing pond which is set within the château's grounds. Two fishing rods are available whilst lines and accessories can be purchased locally.
- The beautiful swimming pool now has a glass dome cover allowing swimming in all seasons - watch this space for new photos.
