Manoir De Kervegat

Region: Brittany Sleeps: 15

Overview

Explore sandy beaches and experience a house steeped in history at the 15th century Manoir de Kervegat, a holiday chateau in Brittany only 8 min drive from Plestin Les Greves. The 7 acres of beautiful private gardens contain a pond and a splash pool the kids will love. Enjoy woodland and coastal walks, bike rides and barbecues. If you're in the mood for some competition, there's badminton, American billiards and a games barn with table tennis.

The home retains some original features, like wooden beams and a stone spiral staircase, but the fully equipped kitchen has an American fridge, and you'll love the modern bathrooms. The 7 bedrooms include 2 family rooms and 1 ground floor bedroom with a king-size four-poster bed. At night, you'll appreciate the TV room with DVD player and children's games.

Visit nearby Plestin Les Greves for the famous beaches, including St. Efflam. A watersports centre there can help you organize a catamaran or kayak day trip. A little further, Locquirec (10 km) is a picturesque seaside village with creperies, cafes and a weekly market.

This family-friendly chateau is 70 km from the Brest airport and 46 km from the Roscoff ferry port.

What we love

- The chateau is under 10 minutes drive from the sandy beach bay at Plestin Les Greves!
- Love outdoor pursuits? A horse riding school and golf course are nearby.
- The manoir's large galleried mezzanine is an elegant place for your group to gather.

What you should know...

- The chateau does not have a permanent swimming pool, but the inflatable splash pool is just right for cooling off during warm summer days
- The manoir is in a rural location and we strongly recommend car hire to get around.
- Those booking with 10 guests or less, will only have access to 5 of the bedrooms, but benefit from a reduced rate. Please select 15 guests, if you would like access to all 7 bedrooms.
