Chateau Belles Vignes

Region: Aquitaine Sleeps: 26

Overview

Château Belles Vignes offers guests a unique stay in a XVIIIth century castle in the heart of a real wine estate, surrounded by vineyards, 170 ha of rolling hills and woodland and only 15km from the centre of charming and exciting Bordeaux.

Completely renovated in 2016, the château has 530 m² of comfortable living space with six ensuite bedrooms, and stands nestled in a huge park with a swimming pool and a private pond.

The castle's small museum, with rare pieces, testifies to its long history whilst its more recent fruits can be sampled during a private wine tasting reserved for all guests. What could be better than staying on the estate that produces the fabulous wine you will drink with the delicious local delicacies of this gastronomic region!

The château is perfectly placed near Bordeaux and Saint Emilion, so this beautiful region is at its doorstep. Discover the varied landscapes of Entre-Deux-Mers, its vineyards, bastides and small villages, which are full of charming chapels and churches, with several stopovers possible at Créon and Espiet in particular.

For sports enthusiasts, there are a number of activities nearby, including two 18-hole golf courses within 15km and a tennis court. The spectacular sandy beaches of the Atlantic Coast as well as the Dune du Pilat (the highest in Europe) and the gorgeous seaside town of Arcachon (with its casino) are about 60km away.

Château Belles Vignes offers all the perfect ingredients for a memorable holiday, wedding or special event in this special part of France.
