

Trulli Emilia

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 8

Overview

Trulli Emilia, a 100-year-old trulli is idyllically situated among the beautiful Puglian countryside offering guests a unique and tranquil holiday to Italy. This incredible property has been restored to create a homely and comfortable villa whilst still maintaining all the original features which makes it so special.

This Trulli is picture perfect with 5 trulli's forming the main section of the property and an additional modern extension where the open-plan living room and kitchen is located. Trulli Emilia can sleep up to 8 guests in 4 cosy bedrooms (3 doubles and 1 twin), 2 of which have private en-suite bathrooms. 3 of the bedrooms have direct access via a patio door to the patio terrace.

The open-plan living room is light and spacious with full-length patio doors leading directly to the outdoor terrace. This area is a sun-trap and the perfect place to relax on the comfy sofas under the pergola. The whole villa is filled with colourful and fragrant flowers and plants.

Climb a couple of steps to find the large private swimming pool with hydro-massage jets. The whole family will enjoy spending days splashing around in the pool. There are plenty of sun loungers and covered comfy seating areas to relax on, there is even a hidden hammock.

By evening cook up dinner on the barbecue and dine al-fresco under the pergola on the wooden table. Sample a bottle of local wine from the nearby vineyards and watch the sun set with good company in your own slice of paradise.

Trulli Emilia is perfectly situated in a rural location but only a short drive to the coast and the historic Castellana Grotte where you will find all the amenities you need.
