

Trulli Gabriella

Region: Puglia    Sleeps: 2

Overview

Trulli Gabriella is the ultimate destination for a romantic getaway. The villa is a traditional dry stone house found only in this hidden region of Puglia. Trulli Gabriella is abundant with charm owing to the well preserved authenticity of cute alcoves, a conical shaped roof and spires.

This Trulli has been recently renovated to a very high standard. Much care has been taken to respect and preserve the tradition of Apulian rural architecture, thus allowing for the combination of luxury and tradition.

The villa is perfect for a couple wanting a romantic getaway, however, there is also a sofa bed available for two children or an adult if you would like extra guests. The interior has all the necessities you could require, with a fully fitted kitchen, open plan living area with a TV and Wi-Fi, large master bedroom and shower room.

Making this villa even more unforgettable are the private grounds with a large private pool, terraces for al fresco dining and early evening aperitivo whilst watching the sun set. Within the grounds there are also plenty of fruit trees which you can enjoy at your leisure, a real treat, especially in May and June when the fruit is in season and ready to pick.

Puglia is often referred to as Italy's best kept secret, hidden away in the heel of the boot, with beautiful beaches, delicious wines, fresh produce and locally produced olive oils.

Location & Local Information

Trulli Gabriella enjoys a prime location in the heart of the Valle d'Itria, making it an ideal base for discovering some of southern Italy's most distinctive towns and landscapes. Set near the elegant town of Locorotondo, the property offers a peaceful countryside retreat with easy access to cultural highlights, historic sites and coastal gems.

To the north lies Castellana Grotte, a hilltop village famed for its impressive network of Apulian Karstic caves. These underground marvels are a fascinating day out, especially during the summer when the cool air provides a welcome escape from the heat. The village itself offers charming alleys and rural scenery, perfect for relaxed evening strolls.

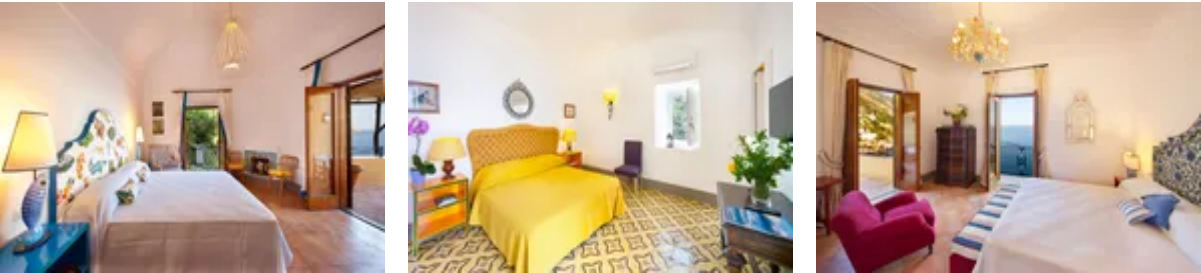

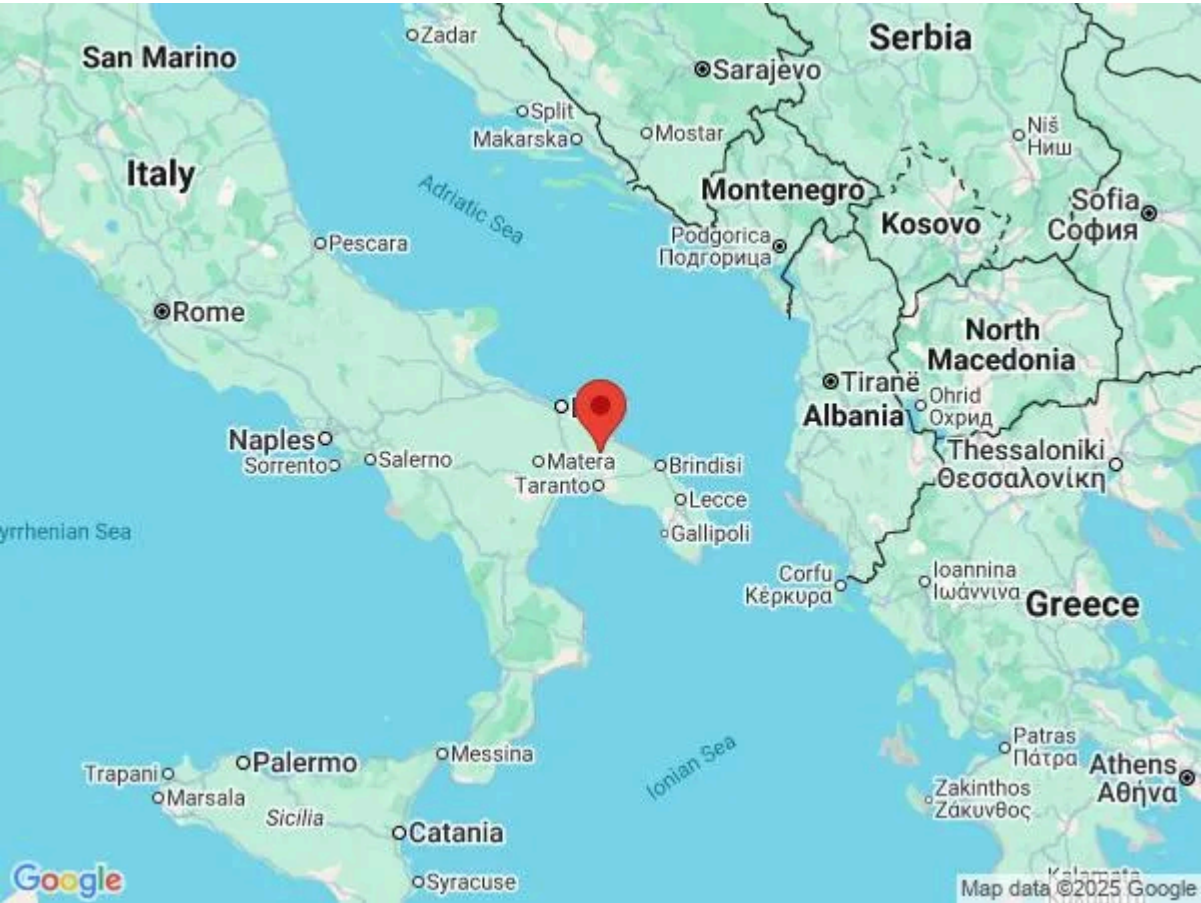

Just a short drive away is the iconic town of Alberobello, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and home to hundreds of traditional trulli. A visit here offers an authentic taste of Puglian heritage and architecture.

For a change of pace, the coastal town of Monopoli offers a lively seafront with historic streets, shops, and excellent restaurants—perfect for an aperitif or a dinner with sea views. Close by, Polignano a Mare boasts dramatic cliffs, clear waters and a vibrant dining scene.

For a longer day trip, the remarkable city of Matera lies just beyond the Puglian border. Famed for its ancient cave dwellings and designated European Capital of Culture 2019, it's a truly memorable destination to explore.
