

Villa Isidoro

Region: Portugal Sleeps: 13

Overview

Featured in The Times 'Europe's 50 Best Villas' 2018

This newly-built and contemporary villa ideally located in the village of Santo Isidoro offers guests a spectacular holiday villa in the north of Portugal only a short drive from the capital city of Lisbon. Villa Isidoro has been beautifully designed to create a modern and truly unique property offering guests two private swimming pools and a great location to explore the area.

The spacious villa has a traditional look but has been designed with clean lines throughout, large full-length windows and quirky cork walls allows the landscape to blend into the villa. The superb views over the verdant hills of Estremadura creates a relaxing environment. Villa Isidoro can accommodate 13 guests in 7 wonderful bedrooms. There is a spacious open-plan living and dining room, 2 kitchens and various terraces to relax on.

Easily accessible on foot, the beautiful beach of Ribeira d'Ilhas is the ideal place to try out some water sports or simply relax on the sandy beach. If you would like to explore further, make sure you visit Ericeira where you will find a traditional old town and more stunning beaches.

Villa Isidoro is the ideal choice for large group of friends or perhaps a family looking for extra space. With the easy access to the amenities in the village, close proximity to the beach and wonderfully designed villa, you will not be disappointed.

Location & Local Information

The village of Santo Isidoro is idyllically nestled in the middle of the hills and the heart of the beautiful Portuguese region of Estremadura. The area is well known for its calm and hospitable nature.

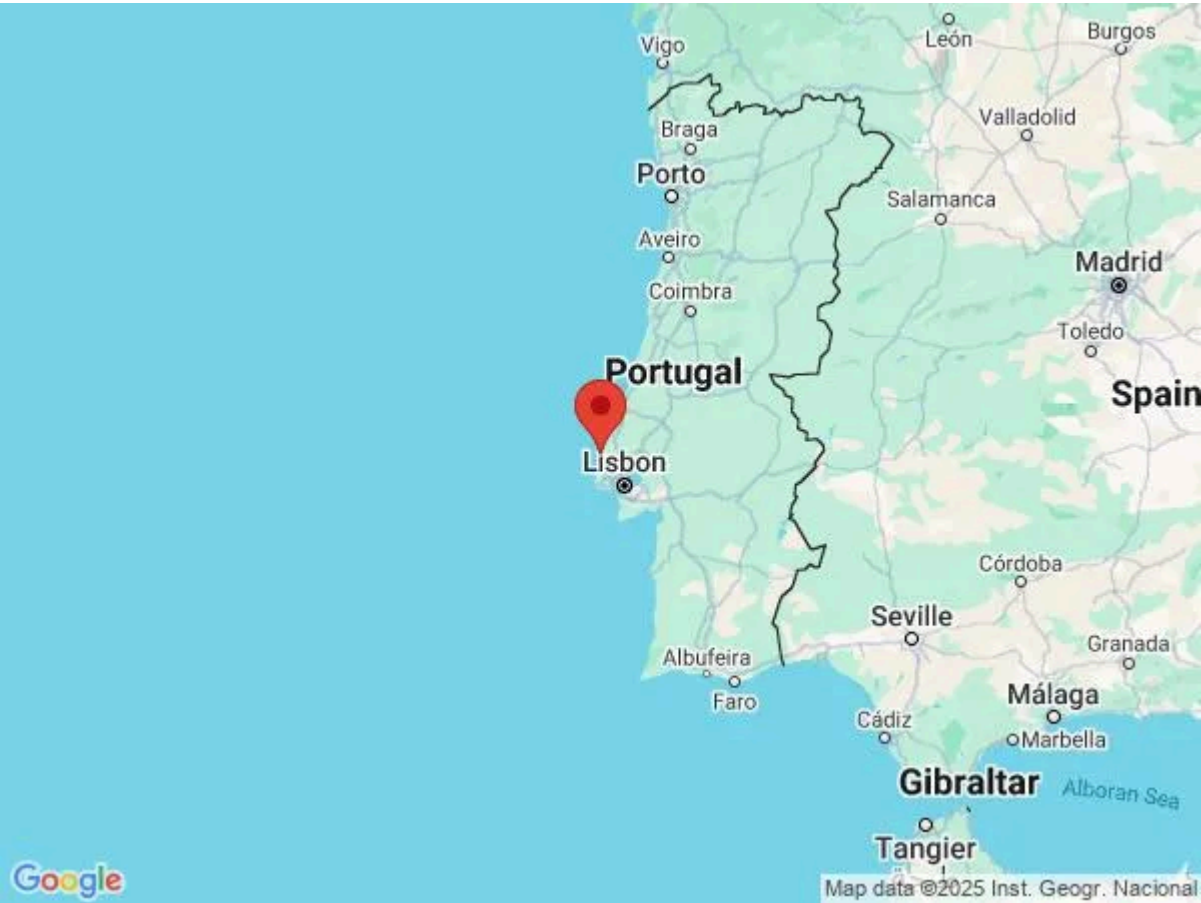

A local village shop and restaurant are only a short stroll away, and the beautiful sandy beach of Ribeira d’Ilhas is only 1km away - the ideal place to practice surfing, bodyboarding or simply relaxing in the sunshine.

Drive only 10 minutes a little further south along the coastline, and you will reach the seaside resort of Ericeira the " World Surf Reserve". Here you will find glorious sandy beaches which are also ideal for surfing and water sports. During the day, explore the old town of Ericeira which is full of charm. The city is built on the cliffside and thus boasts extraordinary views. By evening, the entertainment is in full swing with a variety of bars, restaurants and terraces to enjoy.

Finally, the capital city of Lisbon is a 45-minute drive away and well worth a visit during your stay. This traditional city is full of charm and spirit and with so much to explore.
