

Villa Violeta

Region: Mallorca Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Violeta is a charming, two-story retreat nestled in the peaceful countryside just beyond the village of Búger, a short drive from Sa Pobla. Ideal for travelers who seek a quiet escape from Mallorca's bustling tourist hubs, this villa is a sanctuary of calm where you can unwind and immerse yourself in a slice of rural Spanish life.

Accommodating up to six guests, Villa Violeta offers three spacious double bedrooms over 150 m², making it an inviting getaway for families or a group of friends. From the moment you step inside, the villa's warm and laid-back atmosphere wraps around you, inviting you to settle in and relax. The ground floor features a cozy living room with satellite TV, perfect for lazy evenings, and a bright, open kitchen-dining area that beckons you to cook and share meals together. With its large windows framing views of the beautiful landscape, the kitchen feels like a private oasis for cooking up summer feasts. The ground floor also hosts one double bedroom and a bathroom with a shower, while upstairs, you'll find two more light-filled double bedrooms and an additional bathroom—perfect for restful nights in this tranquil setting.

From the kitchen, doors open to a sun-dappled terrace where the refreshing pool awaits, fringed by grassy lawns and shaded by trees. With a spacious barbecue area and ample outdoor seating, the terrace is a perfect spot to dine al fresco or linger over afternoon cocktails. Whether you're reading, basking in the sunshine, or chatting over a meal, Villa Violeta's outdoor spaces offer plenty of spots to slow down and savor the simple pleasures.

If the allure of the pool doesn't keep you grounded, venture into the nearby village of Búger. Here, you'll discover quaint tapas bars, sip local wine, and perhaps try your hand at a bit of Spanish with the locals—an experience that will make your stay at Villa Violeta all the more memorable.

Location & Local Information

Villa Violeta is set in a serene, rural area on the outskirts of Búger, a small and traditional village in northern Mallorca. This location offers a peaceful retreat away from the crowded tourist areas, ideal for travelers who want a slower, more authentic taste of Mallorca's countryside charm. Búger itself is a quaint village with narrow streets, a handful of local shops, and an inviting plaza where you can enjoy a coffee or sample tapas, immersing yourself in the local pace of life.

Just a short drive away lies the village of Sa Pobla, known for its vibrant markets and celebrated local produce. The area around Villa Violeta is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, with cycling trails and walking paths that wind through olive groves and pine forests, showcasing the island's natural beauty. For a day by the sea, the beautiful northern beaches of Alcúdia and Pollença are easily accessible, offering soft sands and crystal-clear waters. Villa Violeta's location perfectly balances tranquility with easy access to Mallorca's cultural and natural highlights.

What we love

- Enjoy a private pool and spacious terrace, perfect for relaxing days under the Mallorcan sun with family or friends.
- Experience the charm of a peaceful rural setting, just a short drive from local villages and scenic beaches.
- Fully equipped kitchen and outdoor barbecue area make al-fresco dining a breeze—ideal for unforgettable summer evenings!

What you should know...

- Due to the peaceful, rural location we would recommend a car so you can access all the surrounding areas.
- The pool area is unfenced, so children should be supervised at all times.
- When in Spain, act as the Spanish do and remember the Siesta!
