Overview

The passionate new owners of Château des Temps fell in love with this beautiful 17th-century historic building.

They kept its ancient charm that resulted in a beautiful Château with many original features, carved marble fireplaces, and oak floors.

The Château is set in five hectares of parkland with small streams, bridges, a lake and a private swimming pool. It enjoys a desirable setting in lovely countryside, in the heart of the unspoilt Champagne region, in a quiet village with a small supermarket, a chemist and a hairdresser.

Within only a few minutes' drive, are pretty villages, local producers and vineyards. The town of Sezanne has a wonderful market on Saturdays as well as a big supermarket and other shops. About five minutes drive away is a lovely leisure area with a lake, beach, and indoor pool.
