Location & Local Information

St. Spyridon is a peaceful coastal resort located on the serene northeastern shoreline of Corfu, ideal for visitors seeking a slower pace and natural beauty. The area is best known for its Blue Flag-awarded beach, which offers soft golden sands, calm shallow waters, and exceptional cleanliness—making it particularly suitable for families and couples alike.

Adjacent to the beach lies a charming nature reserve, a haven for flora and fauna. Within a brief 10-minute walk, guests can find themselves immersed in a landscape of wildflowers, aromatic herbs, and native butterflies, offering a delightfully tranquil backdrop for morning strolls or nature photography. The reserve's gentle walking paths invite leisurely exploration and provide a refreshing contrast to busier tourist areas.

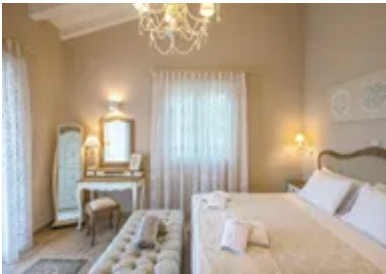

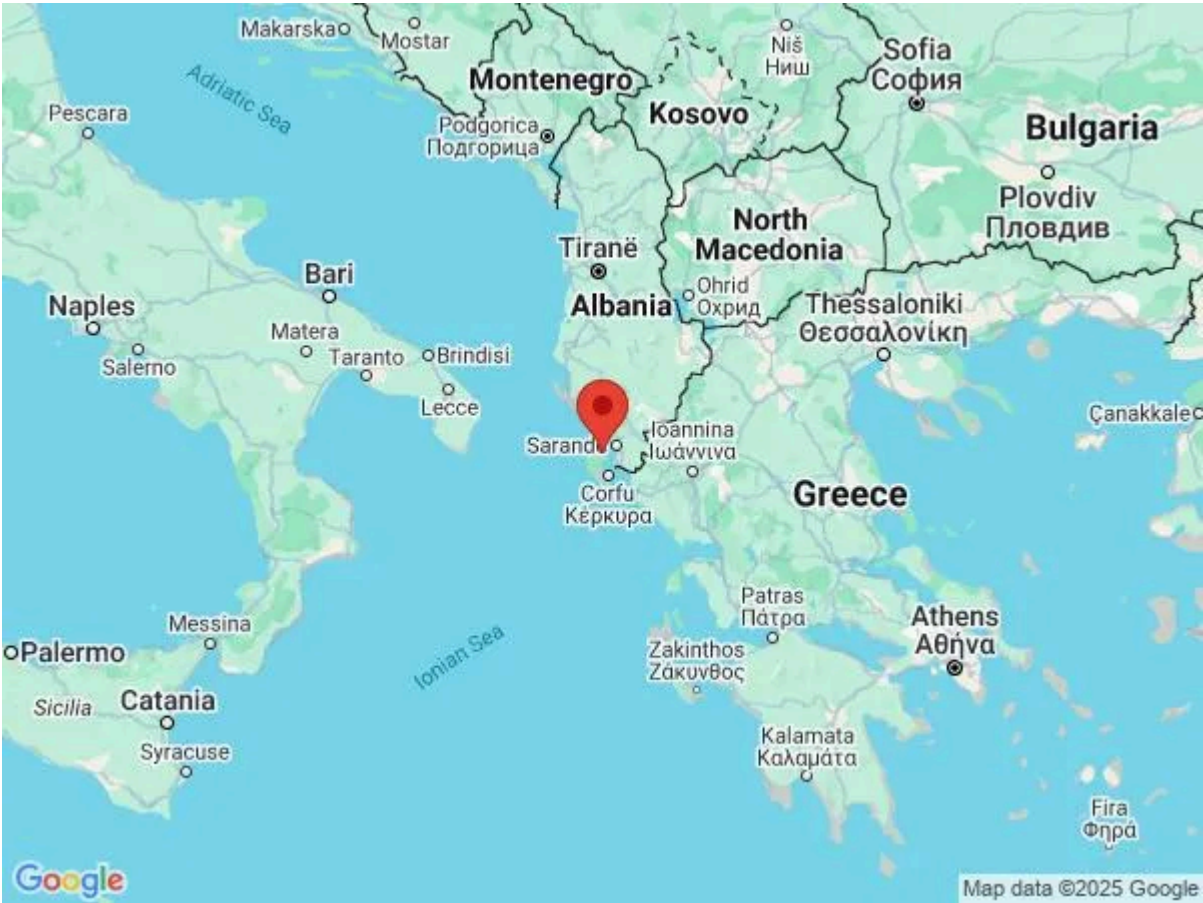

Though the resort maintains a quiet, laid-back character, it still provides essential amenities, including a modest selection of traditional tavernas, relaxed bars, and small local shops. These venues offer a taste of Corfiot hospitality and cuisine without the crowds found in larger resorts.

For those seeking a livelier atmosphere or a broader choice of cultural attractions, Corfu Town is easily reachable within a 40-minute drive. Here, visitors can enjoy a vibrant mix of history, shopping, dining, and nightlife, set against the backdrop of Venetian architecture and bustling squares.

St. Spyridon presents the best of both worlds: a restful coastal escape rooted in nature, with the convenience of city access just a short drive away.
