

Villa Jardin

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 14

Overview

Surrounded by seven acres of private grounds, this stunning 18th-century farmhouse offers privacy and seclusion with all modern facilities, yet benefitting from a great location, just 10 minutes from Grasse and not far from Valbonne, Cannes and other popular destinations of the Cote D'Azur.

Nestled in a magnificent garden rich with fruit trees, Villa Jardin boasts a private tennis court, a splendid heated pool with ample terrace, outdoor dining spaces, a portable charcoal barbecue and table tennis. Lie back on one of the comfortable sunbeds with a good book and a fresh drink or simply quietly contemplate the play of light on the garden lawns.

Your holiday here will be all about chilling out, playing with the kids, and soaking up the laid-back French atmosphere while enjoying long al fresco lunches.

The interiors have been beautifully designed with fine attention to detail. There are six cosy ensuite bedrooms, which are also air-conditioned. The spacious and bright living and dining rooms feature elegant French doors leading directly to the garden and the kitchen comes equipped with all modern appliances.

The location of the house is welcomingly private, yet it is just a short drive from lots of fun daytime activities, adventures and restaurants, not to mention all the beautiful beaches of the French Riviera.

Villa Jardin is the perfect hideaway for bringing together families and groups of friends. This is a house to escape to and shrug off the concerns of the outside world. And to make your stay even more hassle-free, concierge services such as private chefs, catering and a lot more can all be easily arranged.

Location & Local Information

The location of Villa Jardin is a strategic as several interesting villages and towns, both inland and along the coast, can all be easily reached.

The famous perfume town of Grasse is right on your doorstep, offering typical French restaurants, cafes and boutiques. A visit to the Fragonard perfume museum and factory is essential.

Valbonne boasts a charming market square with narrow streets and little shops, perfect for an evening stroll before enjoying the delicious Provençal gastronomy from one of the many restaurants on offer. If you love markets, with plenty of fresh and delicious produce, head to Valbonne early on a Friday morning for a coffee and croissant before purchasing lunch from the stallholders or visit Mouans Sartoux on Thursday, Friday or Saturday for more wonderful fruits, vegetables, meats and other delicacies.

Overlooking the Siagne valley and the Lérins Islands, is Cabris, a picturesque medieval village with a feudal castle and many ancient chapels to explore. Peymeinade, crossed by the Siagne canal, has a traditional old town as well as a bustling modern part, perfect to enjoy some shopping and pleasant walks along the charming channel.

Cannes, with its fancy shops, luxurious hotels and restaurants and amazing sandy beaches makes a good day trip and from there, you can easily reach both Nice and Antibes, two unmissable destinations of the French Riviera.

The seaside town of Villeneuve-Loubet and its surroundings are excellent for family days out, with many watersports opportunities, museums and adventure parks for everyone to enjoy.
