

Villa Milreu

Region: Estoi Sleeps: 12

Overview

Tucked into one of Quinta do Lago's quieter corners, Villa Milreu offers a generous, modern retreat designed for relaxed group stays. The villa's five bedrooms are thoughtfully arranged to offer comfort, privacy, and flexibility for families or friends travelling together.

Outside, the layout is geared towards laid-back socialising and long sunny days. A kidney-shaped pool is flanked by ten sun loungers, with multiple seating areas and a built-in barbecue just off the kitchen - perfect for group meals. A shaded pergola provides space for al fresco dining, while a corner sofa offers a front-row seat to the hilltop and coastal views, especially striking at dusk.

Indoors, an open-plan kitchen with sleek black marble counters connects to bright living and dining areas, thanks to full-length sliding doors. A large games room beneath the pool adds to the entertainment options. Bedrooms are spread across both floors, with several offering direct pool access or private terraces. The first-floor master suite includes a king-size bed, chaise longue, and balcony access overlooking the coastline.

Location & Local Information

Villa Milreu sits near the village of Estoi in the Algarve, offering a peaceful setting surrounded by rolling hills and citrus groves. This inland location balances rural calm with easy access to the region's cultural highlights and coastline.

Just a short drive away, the Palácio de Estoi stands out with its grand gardens, decorative tilework, and striking blend of Baroque and Neoclassical architecture. History lovers will also appreciate the nearby Roman Ruins of Milreu, a well-preserved archaeological site with mosaics and remnants of a Roman villa.

Estoi itself is a quiet, characterful village, where whitewashed buildings and cobbled lanes reflect the Algarve's traditional charm. Though the pace here is slower, Faro is within easy reach - offering international connections, shopping, dining, and a string of beaches along the coast.

What we love

- The sweeping sea views from the terrace are a real highlight - especially at sunset, when the light over the Ria Formosa is unforgettable.
- The games room is a big win for families or groups, offering pool and table tennis for laid-back evenings or rainy days.
- It's a peaceful setting, yet still close to Faro, sandy beaches, and cultural landmarks like Estoi Palace and the Roman ruins.

What you should know...

- Being high up in the hills, it's advisable to hire a car as the villa is almost 15 km from the nearest beach. The off-road parking area has enough space for more than one car.
