

Villa Aleta

Region: Costa Brava Sleeps: 10

Overview

Escape to an opulent world of chic style, rural views and lively Catalanian culture in this stunning family villa. This villa offers you your very own slice of decadent, secluded luxury. Located in Mont-ras, the North Eastern area of Spain in the famous Costa Brava region of Catalonia, nestled amongst the picturesque rural hillsides of the best in Spanish countryside. This gorgeous stone building seamlessly blends into the lovely natural surroundings, creating a warm, rustic atmosphere from the outset.

One of the properties more luxurious features is located to the rear of the property, perfectly perched in the colourful back garden in the form of a crystal clear private pool. Surrounding the pool, aside from the idyllic rural forest vistas is a large patio area containing several sun loungers, conveniently located for sun drying after a splash in the pool! Also outside is a large dining area and lounge area.

Inside the property, the same stone and rustic charm continues throughout. The stone is tastefully broken up by stylish feature walls in period yellow textures. The villa itself is set across two floors and has five bedrooms, sleeping up to ten people with ease. The bedrooms are a mixture of double and single beds allowing for families and friends alike. There is an array of bathrooms available, with the most notable containing a large built in bath. Picture bath time romance surrounded by passionately coloured stone and a glimpse out to the surrounding hills and fields.

If you can bring yourself to leave the comfort of this secluded enclave, there is a wide variety of activities and attractions available for the whole family from golf to waterparks!
