Santo Tomas itself is a quiet, self-contained holiday resort, set against a pine-covered hillside backdrop and surrounded by countryside, only moments from one of Menorca's most stunning stretches of coastline and the best beaches on the Island.

The town comprises of one main street, and a promenade, peppered with small shopping areas where you'll find everything you need, from supermarkets, cafes and souvenir shops to even a charming bakery. Santo Tomas offers relaxing, low-key nights, whether enjoying the entertainment at the various hotels or in the small selection of bars and restaurants in the town. But if you want something a little livelier, neighbouring Son Bou is a 25-minute taxi ride away.

The 3km of pristine golden sand beaches in the area is a major draw. The crystal clear waters of this lifeguarded stretch of coast are perfect for whiling away hot sunny Menorcan afternoons. There are plenty of water sports on offer too; so all the family will be entertained. There are also less frequented virgin beaches a little further west for more secluded bathing.
