Location & Local Information

Settled into the hillside directly opposite the popular village of Rogoznica, this beautiful villa offers spectacular views of the sea and opposing town. Rogoznica is the dividing point between the North and South Adriatic Sea and well known for its fantastic water sports adventures. There is an abundance of great restaurants, cafes and bars around the village, be sure to try the catch of the day, as the area is renowned for its fish delicacies. Perhaps the best thing Rogoznica is famed for is 'Dragons Eye' lake, the source of several myths and legends. The circular lake is guarded by cliffs from four to twenty-five metres high and is a great spot for any adventurous cliff diver. The hydrogen sulphide in the water is perfectly safe to swim in and sometimes causes the water to bubble up! Be sure to read all about the myths and legends from the information boards as you walk around the lake.

If you are looking for a busier and more energetic atmosphere, pay a visit to Primošten. Just a 10-minute drive up the coast, its bustling streets, busy restaurants and the area's best nightclub, Aurora make fun a vibrant town to explore. The nearby towns of Trogir and Split are also UNESCO world heritage sites, famous for their ancient and medieval ruins. You can enjoy exploring some of the famous forts, palaces and cathedrals Croatia can offer, all within an hour's drive.

An hour's drive north is famous Krka national park. The park is home to a unique UNESCO world heritage site, the Skradinski falls. These stunning waterfalls cascade down the mountain into wonderful pools, these are perfect for jumping and swimming in throughout the day to escape the heat. The national park is a fantastic place for a day trip as there is a huge array of cycling, walking and even quad bike touring available. If these aren't for you, there are also several fantastic boat trips from Skradin. A particularly excellent trip is a boat ride to the isolated monastery of Visovac. This island monastery is a truly beautiful setting and well worth visiting.
