Casa Arcobaleno

Region: Amalfi Coast Sleeps: 8

Overview

A short drive from Sorrento, in the small village of Termini, Casa Arcobaleno has some of the most impressive views on the coast. 360-degree panoramas await here, looking out over the Gulf of Naples towards the Mount Vesuvius and islands of Ischia and Procida, this 4-bedroom property with magnificent pool terrace even gives you views north towards Amalfi coast!

The deep blue waters of the Tyrrhenian Sea and the verdant hills of Massa Lubrense provide an incredibly scenic backdrop for your stay at Casa Arcobaleno.
You will drive past expansive vineyards on the way to the villa, which has its private gardens to delight the senses, full of olive trees and scented Mediterranean plants.

Take full advantage of your surroundings by settling down on a sun lounger beside the pool or enjoying a barbecue with friends beneath a wrought iron gazebo. A patio complements this dining area with seating – a fine vantage point from which to soak up the island views.

Inside, a large living area looks out of the island of Capri and offers comfortable sofas, a fireplace, 32" TV and another dining space. Leading straight out to the garden, your spacious kitchen is equipped with a large fridge freezer, dishwasher, microwave and all the other essentials.

Two double bedrooms and a twin bedroom are found in the main house, while another double is located in the annexe below the main house, a romantic addition which offers extra privacy, along with an en-suite shower room and loft living space above. There are two immaculate bathrooms in the main villa, one with a bath and the other with a large walk-in shower.

Location & Local Information

Just five minutes from the village, this peaceful, air-conditioned villa makes it easy to reach the local restaurants and short drive away of course, the beaches. Spectacular Sorrento rewards its many visitors time and again, with a combination of tradition and modernity.

The fascinating history and culture of this colourful city are sure to make an impact, and the countless restaurants and high-fashion boutiques are as Italian as they come – but it's probably the incredible natural beauty of the Sorrento Peninsula you will remember most of all. Casa Arcobaleno is the place to make the most of it.

Beautiful sunsets, rugged cliffs and sweeping views make Sorrento one of Italy's real treasures. It attracts many visitors, but its Old Town remains as enchanting as ever, with colourful and central Piazza Tasso as good a place as any to get your bearings and enjoy a real cup of Italian coffee.

The clear turquoise waters and golden beaches are another excellent reason to visit Sorrento, along with its many cultural offerings – be they musical or cinematic events, or museums keeping the city's long and eventful history alive. All sorts of tours and excursions are available to give you the full Sorrento experience, to take you further afield to the islands of Capri and Ischia, or see Vesuvius or its near neighbour, Naples.

The wider area has yet more to inspire you, with the beautiful beaches and bays of the Amalfi Coast as numerous as they are delightful – those of nearby Marina di Puolo and Massa Lubrense, the legendary 'Land of Sirens', are surely worth a trip.
