

Casa Parella

Region: Amalfi Coast Sleeps: 17

Overview

Set in large, private gardens in the heart of Sant'Agata sui Due Golfi village, the inviting Casa Parella has plenty to charm up to 17 guests. A generously sized swimming pool and a stunning roof terrace are just two of the places where you can unwind. There's a lot to see around the Sorrento Peninsula too – with the Marina della Lobra offering views across the Gulf of Naples just minutes away and the town of Sorrento itself just a little further.

Set over two floors, the main villa has been carefully designed and exquisitely furnished, offering you all the space you could ask for. On the ground floor, you have two living rooms, a dining room and a well-equipped kitchen with induction hobs, oven and microwave, plus a single bedroom ideal for someone less keen or able to tackle the stairs or with walking difficulties.

On the upper level, you have four double and two twin bedrooms - two are interconnected and two have direct access to a large balcony. Majority of the bedrooms have an en-suite shower room of their own, while you will find a separate bathroom with bathtub on this floor, too.

If any of guests are looking for more independence, Casa Parella offers an additional annexe with own private access. Here, you have a double bedroom, living room with sofa-bed and a kitchen including a washing machine and dishwasher. In common with the main villa, annexe has air-conditioning and free Wi-Fi too.

The beautiful gardens are just a stone's throw away from the main village square, but provide no end of places to curl up and enjoy the sunshine, with plenty of sun loungers lining the poolside terrace. As well as several other dining and seating areas, you have the magnificent roof terrace, where you can enhance the Italian experience further with a pizza cooked in the wood-fired pizza oven.

Casa Parella has private parking for six cars, but even if you're not driving, it's easy to get around the area. Just a short walk away from the villa, buses run to many of the area's attractive towns making it stress-free to visit Sorrento, Positan, Amalfi and countless others. Coastal gems like Massa Lubrense lie around 6km away, with the spectacular Gulf of Naples and its enchanting islands just beyond... more reasons to make Casa Parella the base for your next Italian escape.
