Location & Local Information

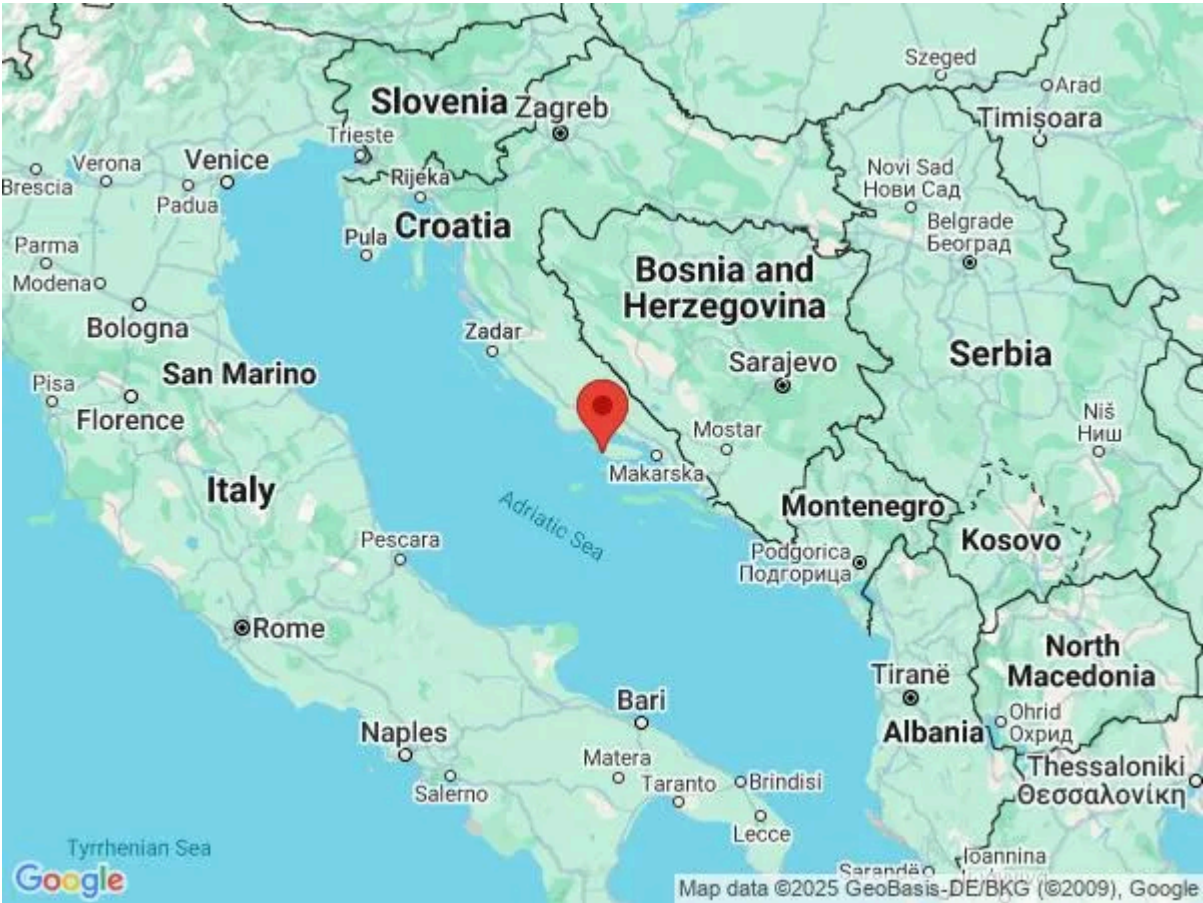

Lucice Bay, situated on the southern coast of Brac Island, is a favourite amongst sailors, due to its sheltered location and beautiful surroundings. A lush pine forests meets a magnificent sandy beach, and the calm turquoise waters entice you to jump in for a refreshing swim or perhaps a scuba dive, which is a popular past time here. Only three houses dot the landscape so mooring up at Lucice feels truly special. And with the larger town of Milna only 1.8km from here, you have the benefit of a variety of amenities only a short drive away.

An old fishing town, Milna offers plenty of charm in its beautiful architecture, with an array of bars, shops and some wonderful restaurants serving their delicious catch of the day. Milna is regarded as one of the most attractive Croatian towns; and with its ancient white Brac stone buildings, spectacular string of sheltered coves, and its crystal-clear waters, you can see why.

There is also a plethora of activities to indulge in around Lucice or in Milna itself, from sailing, windsurfing, fishing and diving, to land based fun including cycling and hiking. If you would like to hire bikes, cars or boats you can do so easily in Milna. And If you wish to go further afield, you can organise day trips from Milna to the spectacular Blue Cave or the attractive and vibrant nearby islands of Šolta and Hvar.
