Location & Local Information

Situated 6km from Omis and 25km from Split, Gata is a pretty village nestled in the spectacular Mosor Mountains. The location is a perfect choice for those wanting a peaceful holiday surrounded by nature, yet also within easy reach of a great number of activities, from climbing and mountain biking, to hiking and horse riding. You are also only a short drive to the beautiful beaches that dot the fantastic Dalmatian coastline.

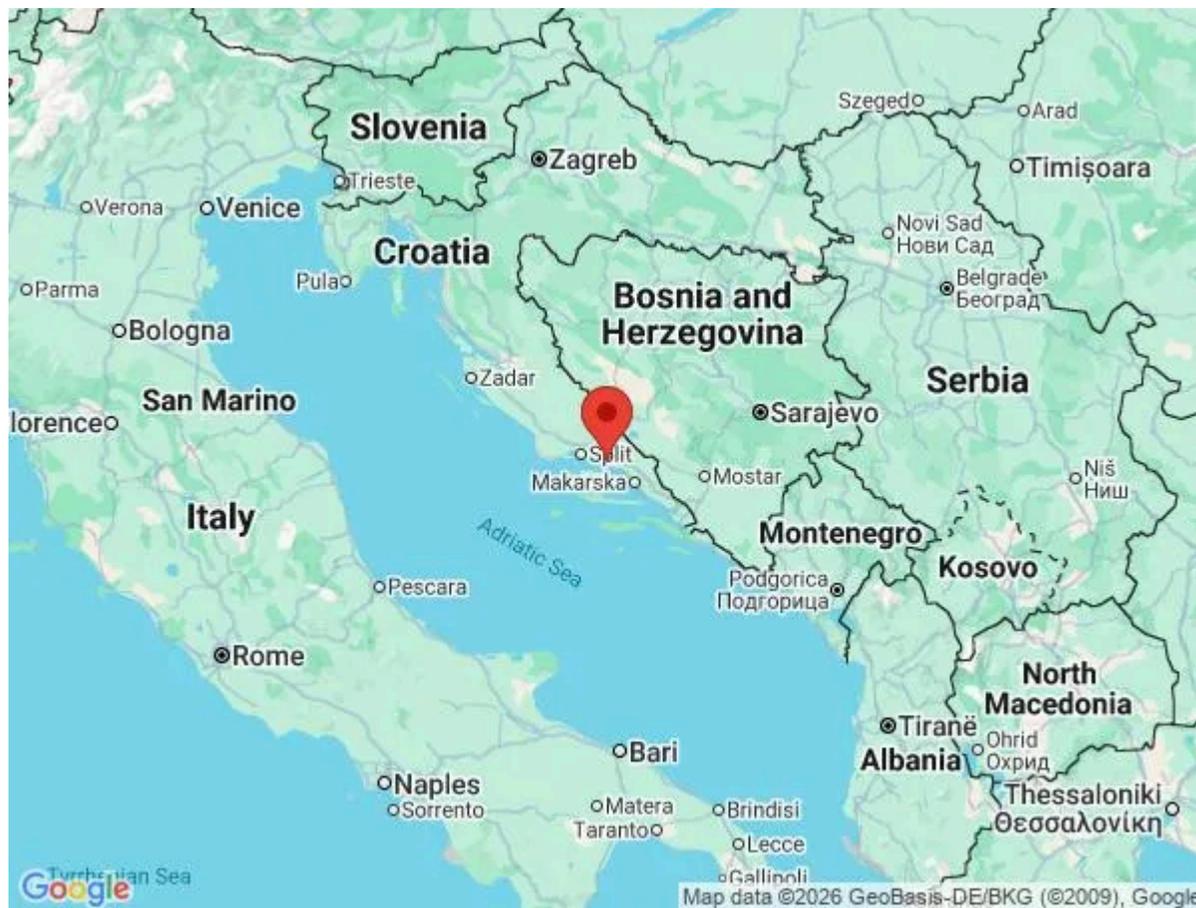

The village itself contains a small selection of shops so you will be able to pick up your basics just down the road. However you will likely want to visit the larger town of Omis a short drive away, to access a wider range of amenities. And the charming stretch of coves is only 8km away, stretching along the Omis Riviera. They benefit from calm, shallow, crystal clear waters and sheltered surroundings, making them ideal for families.

The old pirate town of Omis will provide a good selection of nightlife, a large shopping centre and an array of sporting activities including rafting, zip lining and canyoning. The Venetian fortress that looks out over the town from the hillside and a 17th century parish church are charming landmarks worth a visit. There are also opportunities here to arrange day trips to neighbouring Islands, the National Parks of Krka and Pritvice, and the beautiful city of Dubrovnik.

For a lovely day trip, head towards the coast, at the foot of the Mosnjica Mountains, and you'll find the old town of Ducé, and a cluster of other villages of preserved stone houses, quiet little streets, quiet old squares around historic churches. All surrounded by lush vegetation and magnificent views of the Adriatic Sea and the impressive Islands that sprinkle the horizon.
