

Villa Adrijana

Region: Mlini    Sleeps: 10

Overview

Under ten kilometres from Dubrovnik's historic centre and around two kilometres from a beach, Villa Adrijana offers a secluded and stylish retreat in the Croatian hinterland. Set within a private 16th-century complex, this elegant villa combines period charm with modern comfort, creating a refined base for up to ten guests.

The interior blends traditional details with contemporary design, featuring warm tones, rich textures, and curated artwork. The open-plan kitchen and dining area is ideal for social gatherings, while the adjoining lounge offers a relaxed space with plush sofas and a television. Each of the five double bedrooms is thoughtfully styled and paired with a sleek, modern bathroom to ensure a restful stay.

Outside, guests can enjoy complete privacy with a swimming pool, jacuzzi, and shaded dining terrace for al fresco meals. The villa also features a sports court for badminton, basketball, and Bocciball, along with a dedicated children's playground with a swing. For evening entertainment, a well-equipped party room provides the perfect space to unwind. Whether seeking tranquillity or activity, Villa Adrijana is an exceptional base for a Croatian escape.

Location & Local Information

Located in the Dubrovnik region, often called the "Pearl of the Adriatic", Villa Adrijana enjoys a peaceful setting under ten kilometres from the UNESCO-listed old town. This private spot offers the best of both worlds: seclusion and serenity with easy access to cultural landmarks, restaurants, and shops.

A pebble beach lies under two kilometres from the villa, ideal for early morning swims or sunset strolls. Guests can unwind by the pool, enjoy long al fresco dinners on the terrace, and take in the panoramic countryside views in complete privacy.

Dubrovnik's historic centre is a must-visit, with its pedestrian-only old town, Baroque churches, elegant palaces, and picturesque marina. Beyond sightseeing, there are plenty of beaches, casual eateries serving fresh seafood, and opportunities for water sports and coastal excursions, making Villa Adrijana an ideal base for exploring this captivating region.
