

Mas De Beauce

Region: Midi-Pyrenees Sleeps: 8

Overview

History lives and breathes at this 14th century house in Midi-Pyrénées. A winding lane through a dairy farm delivers you to this mas, an achingly charming retreat to simpler times in Aveyron. The original stone walls aren't just a facade; inside, the rough-hewn kitchen and stairs in the tower testify to the years that have passed. Climb up past the tiny chapel to the lookout tower, where the rolling hills unfurl beneath you.

Nods to the past are everywhere, from the medieval-style art on the walls to the antique sewing machine in one of the bedrooms. Even the modernised bathrooms have walls of rough stone. The formal dining room recalls a moodier time, with stone walls and floors, heavy wooden doors, and intricate textiles. For some time in the sun, head out to the stone patio shaded by the trees and make the most of the glorious swimming pool.

The nearest village is Auzits, a 5-minute drive away, but you'll want to head a little further to Firmi or Cransac for supplies. Natural beauty is everywhere - if you're up for an hour's drive, consider the caverns at Pech-Merle. The nearest town of note is Rodez, 32km away - try the fouace (a sweet bread) for breakfast and pick up a wealth of delicious regional produce at the twice-weekly market before returning to your historic holiday home.

Location & Local Information

In the rolling countryside of Aveyron, Mas De Beauce is set in a little hamlet in a rural location around half an hour from Rodez. Whether you're a lover of history, food, or the great outdoors, this remote region promises a rich experience.

Access to Mas De Beauce is via a working dairy farm - the herd are taken to pastures nearby out of sight to graze by day.

From lively farmer's markets bursting with fresh produce, artisan cheeses, and handcrafted pottery to the bakeries of Firmi and Cransac, both less than 15-minutes drive away, filling the air with the scent of warm baguettes, every day brings a new delight across this region. For those who appreciate fine wine, the nearby vineyards of Marcillac-Vallon (16km) offer tastings of their renowned reds.

Beyond the local culinary delights, this area is a stone's throw from some of Aveyron's most enchanting sights. The medieval village of Belcastel (22km), perched above the river, is a picturesque masterpiece, while Conques (21km), with its stunning Romanesque church of Ste Foy, is a must-visit for history enthusiasts and lovers of architecture alike.

Venture a little further, and you'll find the timeless charm of Villefranche-de-Rouergue (44km), a 13th-century bastide town centred around a striking church tower, or the romantic setting of Najac (67km), where a single medieval street leads to an imposing fortress high above the Aveyron River.

Rodez (32km), with its impressive Gothic cathedral and fascinating Soulages Museum, offers a blend of history and contemporary art, making it an essential stop for culture seekers.

For those drawn to nature, the Aveyron offers a wealth of outdoor adventures. Explore quiet country lanes by foot or bike, or take to the water with canoeing and kayaking on the Lot and Célé rivers. Swim in secluded spots, fish in the nearby lakes, or, for the thrill-seekers, try water skiing in Cajarc, about an hour by car from your holiday home.

What we love

- Every inch of this villa feels historic - we love the cosy kitchen, cut from stone
- The walls surrounding this property hold a modern surprise - the private pool overlooking wildflowers
- Sample the excellent red wine in the vineyards of Marcillac-Vallon and stock up on delicious local product at the twice-weekly market in Rodez

What you should know...

- This is the deep countryside - you'll need a car to get around!
- Steeped in history and character, take great care across the house and grounds with steep, old stairs and other original features.
- Please note that the farmers in the neighbouring house own a couple of friendly dogs. Please remember to close the gate otherwise they will come and say hello!
- Because of the stone and brick, this home tends to be chilly in the winter, so best suited for summer stays.
