

Villa Illios

Region: Corfu Sleeps: 6

Overview

A picture of elegant simplicity in southwestern Corfu, Villa Illios is waiting for you, the perfect spot for an idyllic summer holiday.

Accommodation is split between two spaces, the main villa and the bungalow. Both interiors offer ultra-modern living with clean lines, open-plan areas and heaps of natural light. Villa Illios has been built to wonderfully high specification, using as many sustainable and environmentally friendly materials as possible.

The open plan kitchen and dining area in the main villa are fully equipped, ideal for cooking up feasts to enjoy on the outside terrace during the balmy evenings. Light woods paired with pale colour palettes mean space feels bright and breezy at any time of the day, and the living room area is fitted with a full-screen television and fireplace, in the unlikely event you need to warm up!

Also on the ground floor, you'll find a separate WC and a stunning double bedroom with en suite. All the beds are blissfully comfortable with Coco-mat mattresses and silky soft linens. Upstairs there's a further double en suite bedroom, separate dressing room, and a spacious and bright playroom.

The bungalow is small but no less elegant. Offering a double bed with ample storage and a bathroom, it's a cosy final addition ideal for couples or the older kids that may want their own space.

Entering the villa grounds down a paved path with a small lawn either side, the villa looks welcoming and unassuming. You'll initially see the bungalow and the professional kitchen. Once you make your way around the bottom of the property though, the outside space will take your breath away. Ambient lighting lines the stone walls, glowing warmly as dusk falls. Make the most of the sunshine and top up your tan on the sunbeds.

Take a refreshing dip in the L-shaped pool, or skip (carefully) across the gleaming white stepping stones. The pool sparkles a welcoming bright blue in the heat of the midday sun. Enjoy al fresco dining on the veranda with views of the glistening ocean in the distance, or in the shade under the leafy trees by the bungalow.

Or take a moment to relax in not one but two outdoor seating areas. Enjoy cocktails before dinner at the table and chairs by the pool, curl up in the comfy cushioned wicker seating in the shade with a great book or snooze the afternoon away.

What we love

- The villa benefits from a stunning outside space, with al fresco dining and swimming with a view of the ocean
- The owner has thought of every detail to make your stay just perfect, and many of its features are eco-friendly, like the materials used for construction or the energy-saving technology
- The beds are top of the range Coco-mat, with toppers so prepare for some sleep of the highest calibre
- All double beds can be split into twins
- Unlike many Greek Houses the house water at Villa Illios is drinkable
- The pool is salt filtered and therefore chlorine free

What you should know...
