

Villa Amelina

Region: Portugal Sleeps: 16

Overview

Nestled within the embrace of rolling landscapes, this enchanting farmhouse stands as a testament to meticulous restoration work undertaken by skilled local craftsmen. A symphony of artistry and care has transformed it into a sanctuary of serenity where comfort and beauty converge seamlessly. Each carefully curated bedroom and the captivating living room, which graciously unfolds onto a terrace, evoke a sense of cherished elegance, inviting alfresco dining and contemplation. For those seeking a retreat surrounded by privacy, or families with young explorers, the pool cottage beckons as the seventh bedroom, a hidden gem of seclusion.

Upon the ground floor, a splendid double bedroom resides adjacent to a shower room, offering a private oasis. The dining room extends an invitation to a covered terrace, where the sun's gentle caress mingles with the pleasures of dining en plein air. The tastefully adorned living room is graced with a TV, DVD player, and music centre, a realm of relaxation that seamlessly melds with the covered terrace, revealing vistas that sweep over the surrounding hills. The culinary heart of the farmhouse, a spacious and well-appointed kitchen, beckons culinary creations, while a games room with table tennis ignites playful camaraderie. Practicality intertwines with luxury through the provision of a laundry room.

Ascending to the upper floor, the master double bedroom, an ode to opulence, boasts an ensuite bathroom and shower room, a private enclave of indulgence. Additional double and twin bedrooms share in the embrace of their own full bathrooms, each a testament to comfort and functionality, providing a haven to recharge and unwind.

A tranquil haven within the cottage, a twin bedroom envelops guests with its own ensuite bathroom, an intimate escape. A kitchenette adorned with a microwave, oven, hob, and kettle elevates convenience to an art form.

Outside, a sunbathing terrace and emerald lawns await, spaces where time ebbs in tranquil reverie. The barbecue terrace unveils a realm of gastronomic delights, an alchemy of flavours enriched by the open air. The private pool, its form a dance of irregular elegance, sprawls across 12 by 7 meters at its widest embrace. Ample car parking facilities welcome guests, while the lush embrace of the gardens, interspersed with the enigmatic allure of private woods, unfolds myriad nooks for relaxation, shaded contemplation, or the vigour of morning routines.

Location & Local Information

Nestled in the fabulous rural landscape of Minho, and between so many interesting towns and natural spaces, Villa Amelina is in the ideal spot to explore the fascinating history and sublime landscape of the region. Ponte de Lima, one of Portugal's oldest and most historic towns with a delightful range of shops, bars and restaurants among the ornate squares and cobbled alleyways, and a huge market on the river bank every other Monday, is just 13km away. The country's only National Park, the mountainous nature reserve of Peneda Gerês National Park is just a 40-minute drive away and hosts prehistoric remains, walking trails and rugged hills as well as deer, wolves and golden eagles!

The delightful market town of Barcelos is just an hour away, while the stunning historical centre of Viana do Castelo is under 45 minutes away, where there are even sandy beaches! The thriving town of Braga, the capital of the district, is about 50km away and hosts many relics of the region's diverse history. With so much on your doorstep, you can visit a new historical and beautiful town every day!

Minho is a fantastic, largely rural region on the northernmost Atlantic tip of Portugal, bordering the Spanish region of Galiza, with which it shares many attributes. Minho is perhaps most famous as the home of the Vinho Verde, a crisp, dry white wine (although as the name suggests, it is in fact green!) best enjoyed with a local fish dish.

Portugal itself is a small, fascinating country at the most Western point of mainland Europe. The capital, Lisbon, is known for its lively nightlife, with endless bars and clubs full of fun-loving locals and tourists alike, but also has plenty of fascinating history (check out Belém, jam-packed with monuments!) and undulating terrain, famously termed the 'city of the seven hills'. From Lisbon, it is very quick to travel by the domestic high-speed train line to the city of Braga, which will connect you fairly quickly to Villa Amelina.

With a vast coastline with the powerful Atlantic Ocean, Portugal is a true paradise for the keen surfer, or indeed even those looking to try if for the first time. And for those less keen on surfing, the beaches of Portugal are still well worth a visit for their beautifully clear waters and fine sands.

What we love

- The harmony between the traditional designs and modern comforts and amenities is utterly captivating
- Dine like royalty in this utterly majestic dining room. There's even a grandfather clock to remind you of the villa's rich history!
- The cottage, with a twin bedroom and kitchenette provides a perfect space for those in search of a little more privacy
- The huge kitchen, especially the double oven, is a real delight for any budding chef! We love the traditional tiles and soft colours, too

What you should know...

- The remote location is ideal for many, but some may prefer to be closer to amenities, with a short drive required to reach the nearest shops, restaurants and attractions
- There's no fencing for the pool so be sure to keep an eye on the little ones
- While there's no air conditioning available, a dip in the pool makes for an excellent way to cool off!
