Location & Local Information

You'll enjoy the privacy of the villa, with its gated entrance. You can walk to the beach but the drive is a little further due to the road network.

Situated 25km east of Rhodes city and nestled between vibrant Faliraki and ancient Lindos, Kolimpia stands as a charming resort acclaimed for its Blue Flag beach, scenic landscapes, and inviting ambience. With a serene atmosphere and an array of cafés, bars, and restaurants, it caters to families and couples alike.

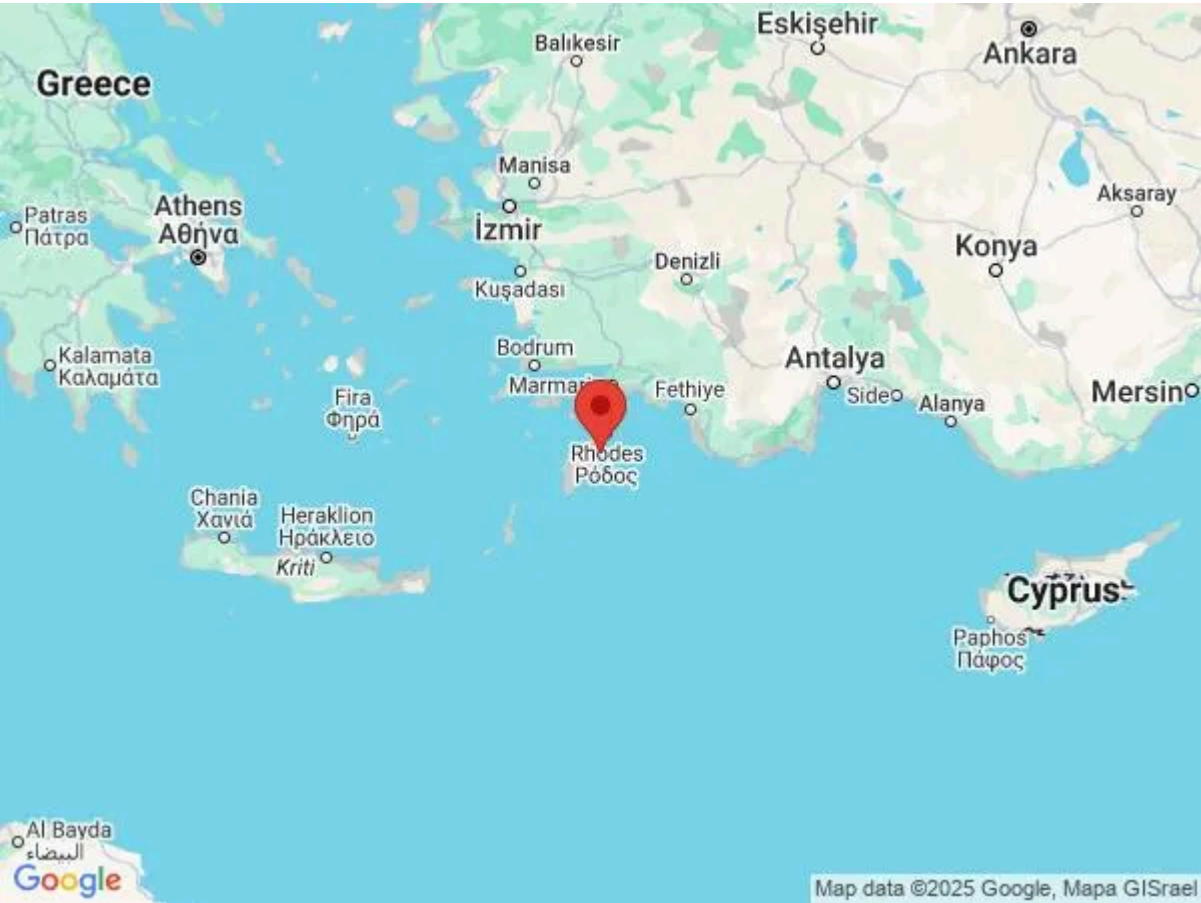

Kolimpia's standout feature is its central road adorned with eucalyptus trees, connecting the main street to the beach. This coastline stretch boasts shallow waters and soft sand, perfect for families with young children. The clear waters are ideal for swimming and snorkelling, often accompanied by water sports activities.

Exploring from Kolimpia is a breeze – boat trips unveil the beauty of Rhodes' coast and the enchanting Symi Island. Luxurious options include yacht outings to Charaki Bay, offering pristine snorkelling and turquoise swimming opportunities.

With a car, Rhodes City Centre is a 30-minute drive away. Even closer are the idyllic Seven Springs, forests for walks, serene lakes, and numerous mountain retreats. A 40-minute drive leads to Lindos, a picturesque village with houses clinging to a steep rock. The main draw is the ancient Acropolis, dedicated to Athena, boasting Doric columns and awe-inspiring 360-degree panoramas.
