What we love

- The games room which comes complete with its very own bar is the perfect place for the adults and big kids to relax in the evening!
- There is a multitude of bedroom configurations making it ideal for parties of friends or families and those travelling with children
- The elevated position of the property enables it to enjoy excellent views over the Severn Estuary

What you should know...

- There is not a hot tub at the property however one can be rented for an additional price should it be desired - please enquire at time of booking
- The house is ideal for celebrations and get-togethers however no stag or hen do's will be permitted
- The bedrooms on the very top floor are located in the attic and therefore have a few low ceilings and beams - These are all clearly marked and should not cause an issue for tall guests
