The ground floor of Finca Aloma also features a spacious double bedroom with an ensuite bathroom, ideal for older guests. Two more double bedrooms are situated on the first floor of the beautiful open gallery hallway - both with modern ensuite bathrooms, allowing complete privacy for guests. All the bedrooms are decorated to an incredibly high specification, with bright white decor punctuated by stunning artwork, soft furnishings, attractive furniture, and a wonderful flow-through of air and light for a comfortable and luxurious night's sleep. The first floor also benefits from a fully furnished private terrace, which offers guests the perfect spot for reading, relaxing, or enjoying a morning cuppa.

During June, July, August and September, guests can access the fourth bedroom - taking total occupancy up to eight. This ground-floor twin room is available exclusively from outside and is ideal for nannies or young children.

Finca Aloma is set within a beautifully manicured Mediterranean garden and features a choice of terraces to sit and relax on whilst overlooking the property's incredible private pool and surrounding sun loungers. A fully-furnished outdoor lounge area is ideal for enjoying an early evening aperitif before heading to the wooden dining table for an alfresco meal.

As if you weren't already spoiled for choice, across the lawn, you'll find another covered terrace and a second dining area, complete with barbecue. There is also a ping pong table - which is sure to be a hit with the kids and could lead to some fun family competition after dinner!

Location & Local Information

Finca Aloma is located on the outskirts of Pollensa, meaning that this attractive ancient town and all that it has to offer is just a few minutes drive away. Pollensa is packed with plenty of sightseeing opportunities and features narrow, winding streets, quaint buildings and a bustling market square - which comes to life on a Sunday, when you'll find all manner of fresh local produce for sale, as well as clothes, toys, arts and crafts. The town is small and easy to explore on foot, but be aware that it can be a steep and uneven walk, so suitable footwear is a must! A popular attraction with visitors to Pollensa is the Calvari Steps, which lead from the Placa Major (main square) to the top of the town, where you'll discover the beautiful little Church of Nostra Senyora dels Angels. At midday, the light spills through the church's gorgeous stained-glass windows and is a sight to behold. However, whatever time you visit, you'll be rewarded with this stunning building's intricate interior and some incredible views over the town. The walk isn't an easy one - with over 300 steps! - so this might be best avoided if you're visiting with young children. Another of Pollensa's most famous features is the Roman bridge over the Sant Jordi River. This pretty spot is the ideal place to stop and take a breather while you enjoy ice cream and take in the incredible atmosphere. We also recommend that you visit Museo Dionis Bennassar, the home of a local artist that is now used to showcase his incredible works during your time in Pollensa. This peaceful and inspirational place is the perfect spot for art lovers and anyone who wants to enjoy some quiet contemplation while soaking up some local culture. Pollensa isn't known for its nightlife (you won't find any big nightclubs here), but it does offer a warm and cosy buzz after dark! The area is one of the quieter holiday spots in Mallorca, so it's never packed. Locals and tourists socialise in the main square and along the seafront near the port once the sun has gone down. There's a great atmosphere in and around the terrace bars and restaurants. Many of the bars will have live music or karaoke, so you're sure to find somewhere with a vibe you'll enjoy. If you want to get your groove on, one small nightclub just off the main square is open until the early hours and is popular with the younger crowd. If you're looking for more intense nightlife, nearby Alcudia has bars and clubs aplenty, with popular haunts being Banana Club, Cafe Milano, and La Nit Music.
