Location & Local Information

Villa Jordina is located between the former fishing village of Puerto Pollensa and the ancient town of Pollensa, meaning that guests are able to enjoy a day at the beach just as easily as they are able to spend the day wandering around the city. Puerto Pollensa is known for its beautiful marina and horseshoe bay that is filled with bars and restaurants to enjoy during your stay. The long, sandy stretch of beach here is one of the most popular with families holidaying in the region and is furnished with sun loungers and cool beach bars.

If you venture to the other side of the port, you'll discover D'Albercuix Beach running alongside a promenade known as the 'Pine Walk' due to the fact that it is lined with tall pine trees. This beach is smaller and less 'touristy' than Puerto Pollensa beach, making it a firm favourite for those who are visiting the region with younger children.

Puerto Pollensa is just a short distance from the ancient town of Pollensa - one of Mallorca's most attractive towns. Pollensa's winding cobbled lanes, stunning main square and historic architecture, make it a must-see destination during your stay.

Here you'll find a vibrant mix of cultures that have influenced the monuments and buildings in the town over thousands of years, including the Calvari Steps and the medieval church and watchtower. The town is small and easy to explore on foot, but be aware that it is a steep and uneven walk, so good footwear is a must!

Another little gem that deserves a visit during your time in Pollensa is Museo Dionis Bennassar, the home of a local artist that is now used to showcase his incredible works. This peaceful and inspirational place is the perfect spot for art lovers, as well for anyone who wants to enjoy some quiet contemplation while soaking up some local culture.

After a day of wandering the pretty streets, looking at the fresh produce in the market and marvelling at the views, be sure to stop at a local bar or cafe for juice, coffee or wine....before heading to one of the many restaurants in the town for traditional Mediterranean fares such as Tumbet (a vegetarian dish of aubergines, potatoes, red peppers, garlic, tomatoes and love oil), or perhaps a fresh seafood dish, salad or burger.
