Location & Local Information

Casa Xarca is situated in a peaceful residential area of Puerto Pollensa, one of northern Mallorca's most charming coastal towns. This former fishing village features a picturesque marina and a crescent-shaped bay lined with bars and restaurants. The main beach is family-friendly, offering sun loungers, shallow waters, and vibrant beach bars, making it a perfect spot for relaxation.

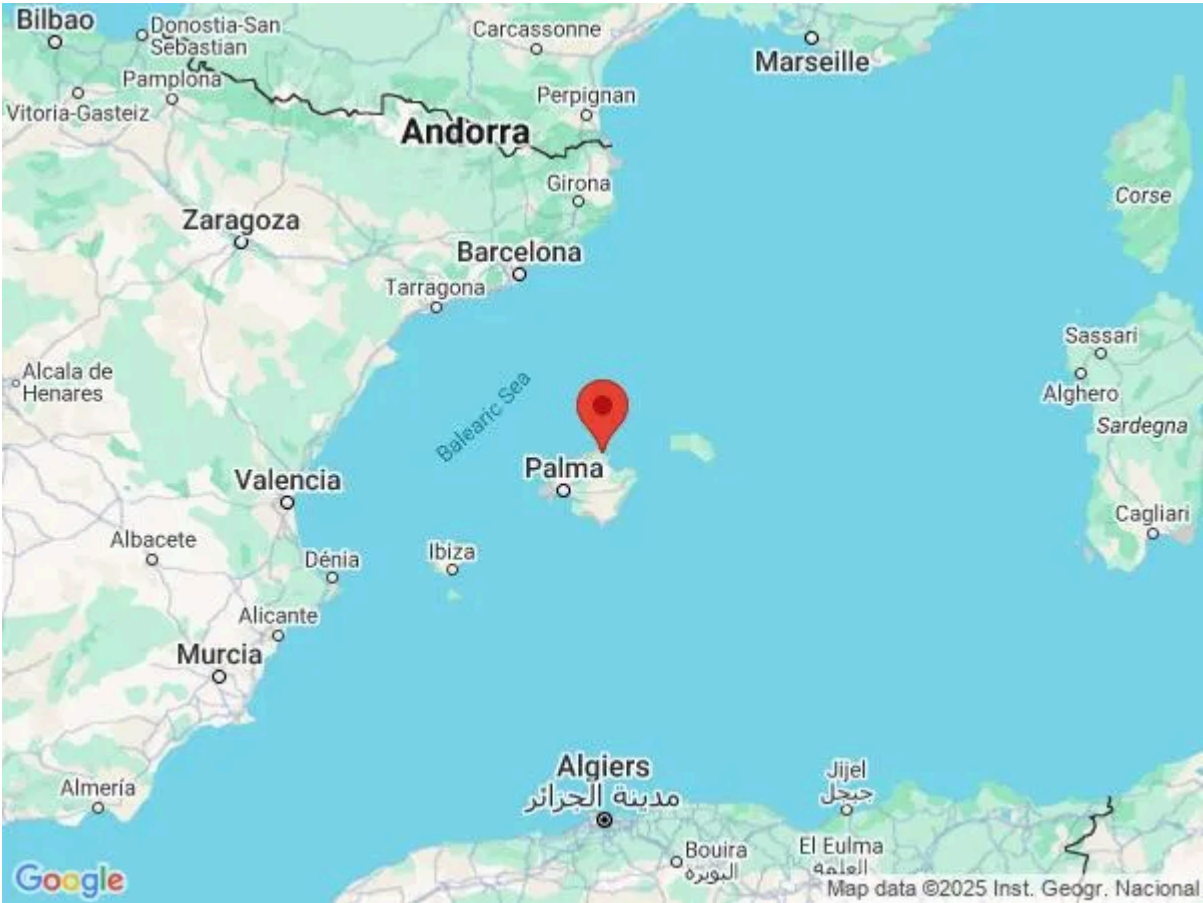

On the other side of the port lies D'Albercuix Beach, bordered by the 'Pine Walk' promenade, named for its tall, shading pine trees. This quieter, less commercialized beach is ideal for families with young children seeking a more tranquil setting.

Just a short drive away, you'll find the ancient town of Pollensa, known for its cobbled streets, historic charm, and vibrant culture. The town's centerpiece is its main square, surrounded by cafes and restaurants, while the Calvari Steps and medieval landmarks offer a glimpse into its rich history. Art enthusiasts will enjoy the Museo Dionis Bennassar, dedicated to the works of a renowned local artist.

After exploring Pollensa, unwind at a local cafe with fresh juice, coffee, or wine before dining on traditional Mediterranean dishes such as Tumbet or freshly caught seafood. Pollensa is a must-visit destination blending culture, history, and culinary delights.
