

Villa Laelia

Region: Mlini Sleeps: 10

Overview

Villa Laelia offers a tranquil seafront setting with sweeping views of the Adriatic, surrounded by centuries-old olive groves and oak trees. Built from traditional Dalmatian stone, this spacious retreat spans three floors and provides 440 square metres of elegant living space, sleeping up to ten guests in refined comfort.

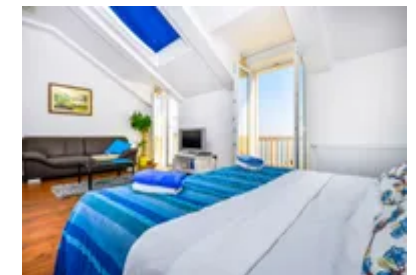

The villa's interiors feature solid wood furnishings, carefully selected details, and a calm, welcoming atmosphere. On the ground floor, guests will find a large open-plan living and dining area, a high-spec kitchen, a conservatory with indoor fireplace, and access to multiple terraces for seamless indoor-outdoor living. A utility room and bathroom complete the floor.

The first floor offers two bedrooms, a bathroom, and a second kitchen, dining area, and lounge. With its own entrance and balcony access, this level can be used independently, ideal for multi-generational groups or accompanying staff. The top floor houses two spacious bedrooms and two bathrooms, including one with a sauna and massage bath, plus private balconies with uninterrupted sea views.

Outside, the villa boasts a fifty square metre swimming pool with integrated jacuzzi, a sun terrace, and beautifully maintained Mediterranean gardens. With ample space, panoramic views, and a peaceful atmosphere, Villa Soline promises a restorative escape along Croatia's southern coast.

Location & Local Information

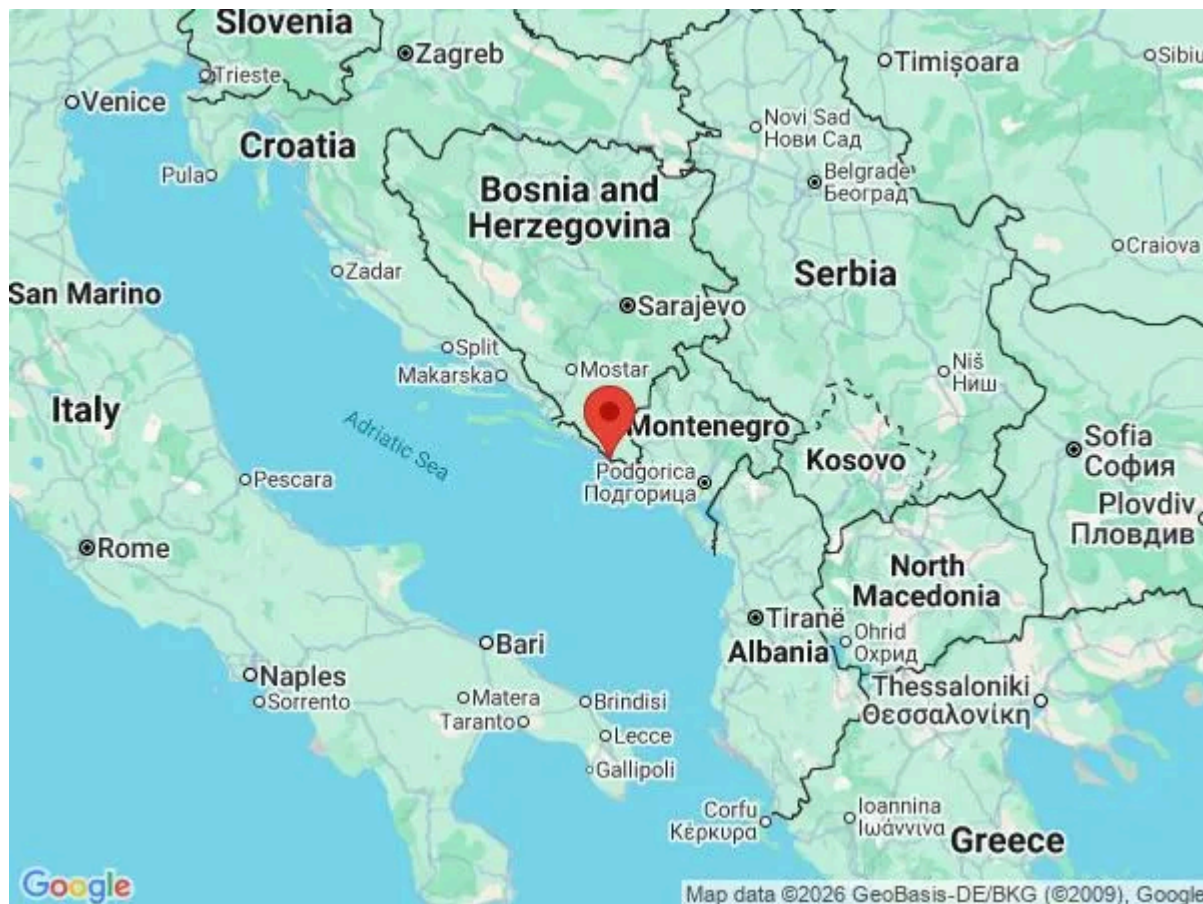

Villa Laelia enjoys a peaceful seafront setting near the village of Soline, around a ten-minute drive from the historic harbour town of Cavtat and under thirty minutes from Dubrovnik. With its blend of scenic coastal beauty and cultural richness, this is an ideal base for discovering the Dubrovnik Riviera.

Charming Cavtat offers a picturesque waterfront, quiet pebble beaches, and a vibrant dining scene. Once a retreat for Croatia's leading artists, the town is home to the Racic Mausoleum by Ivan Meštrović, the House of painter Vlaho Bukovac, and the 16th-century Rector's Palace. The wooded Rat Peninsula provides shaded coves and stunning sea views, while the beach at Zal is just one kilometre from the centre.

Dubrovnik, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, lies around thirteen kilometres away. Known as the 'pearl of the Adriatic', its baroque churches, fortified walls, and marble streets evoke centuries of history. Highlights include the Rector's Palace, Maritime Museum, and the panoramic cable car to Mount Srd. With easy access by road or ferry, guests can enjoy both cultural exploration and coastal tranquillity during their stay at Villa Laelia.

What we love

- The villa has direct access to a lovely, secluded beach cove
- The second living space, kitchen and separate bedroom makes it perfect for two families holidaying together
- The villa holds a fantastic location, Cavtat is just a fifteen-minute car journey away, from here boat trips can be taken to many of the beautiful Croatian islands, while Dubrovnik itself is less than thirty minutes away

What you should know...

- The closest beach is pebble and is just a short walk down some steps from the villa, please note this would not be suitable for someone with mobility issues.
- Those travelling in groups of more than 8 should be aware that they will need to make use of the double sofa beds in the living rooms.
