Location & Local Information

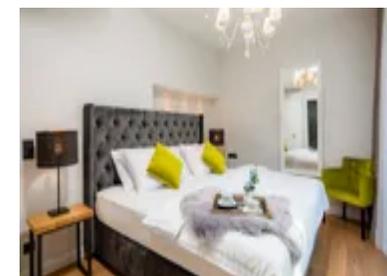

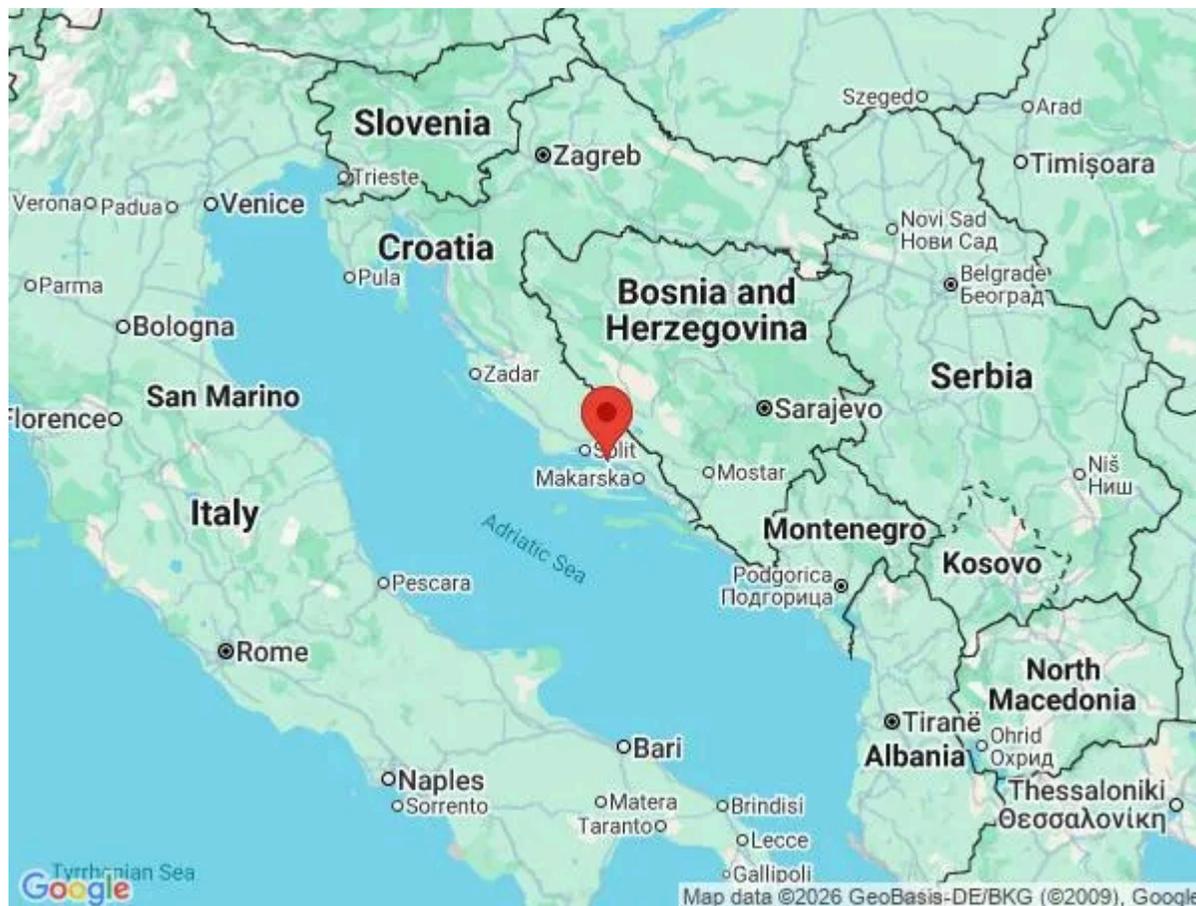

Situated two kilometres from Omis and twenty-three kilometres from Split, Duće is a serene village renowned for its five kilometres of pristine sandy beaches. It is a perfect haven not just for families with children but also for those seeking to immerse themselves in the rich cultural heritage and natural beauty of this breathtaking part of the Dalmatian coast.

With a selection of small shops and a scattering of lovely beach bars and restaurants in the village, you have plenty on your doorstep. You also have the old town of Duće, situated at the foot of the Mosnjica Mountains, well worth a visit along with the cluster of other villages of preserved stone houses, quaint little streets, and charming old squares around historic churches. All surrounded by lush vegetation and magnificent views of Adriatic Sea and impressive Islands that dot the horizon.

If you're looking for a little more hustle and bustle, a short drive into the old pirate town of Omis will provide a greater selection of nightlife, a large shopping centre and an array of sporting activities from rafting to canyoning. The Venetian fortress that looks out over the town from the hillside and a 17th-century parish church are charming landmarks worth a visit. There are also opportunities here to arrange day trips to neighbouring Islands, the National Parks of Krka and Plitvice, and the beautiful city of Dubrovnik.

The stunning beach Duće benefits from a café and tavern offering welcome shade and refreshments. A charming stretch of coves then runs towards Omis, with a variety of shallow sandy beaches to choose from. These beaches are ideal for families in their calm, crystal-clear waters and sheltered surroundings.

So whether you favour its relaxed and peaceful atmosphere or relish its position as a base to explore the many local towns and Islands nearby, Duće is a fantastic choice for your Croatian getaway.
