Villa Donatella

Overview

Villa Donatella is a luxurious Sicilian retreat designed for pleasure seekers who appreciate opulent interiors, indulgent wellness features, and easy access to the coast. Set in peaceful countryside on the edge of Donnalucata, the villa is a hidden gem surrounded by a lush garden of palms and citrus trees, offering privacy and elegance in equal measure.

The villa's striking exterior features panoramic terraces, round pillars, and graceful iron railings that lead down to a beautiful outdoor dining area, immediately setting the tone for a special stay. Inside, the contrast is dramatic and memorable, with bold colours, rich furnishings, and statement lighting creating a unique and glamorous atmosphere. Arranged across three levels and connected by both a spiral staircase and a lift, the villa sleeps up to eight guests in four bedrooms.

At its heart lies the private spa, complete with a hammam, jacuzzi, and heated indoor pool, making it a year-round haven for relaxation. A fully equipped tiled kitchen allows guests to cook with fresh local produce, though many prefer to dine al fresco on the shaded terrace. Sliding glass doors open to elevated outdoor spaces with sea glimpses, perfect for sunset drinks.

Location & Local Information

Villa Donatella sits in the south-east corner of Sicily, just outside the beach town of Donnalucata, placing shops, pizzerias, seafood restaurants, and a long sandy beach within easy reach. Slightly off the main tourist trail, the area retains an authentic Sicilian charm and feels refreshingly uncrowded, even in summer.

This region is renowned for its beautiful UNESCO-listed baroque towns. Scicli is just 15 minutes away, while Modica, Ragusa, and Noto are all perfect for day trips, offering striking architecture, historic squares, and plenty of opportunities for leisurely exploring and gelato stops. The area is also well known as the filming location for the TV series Inspector Montalbano, with several recognisable spots nearby.

Further afield, guests can visit the charming fishing village of Marzamemi or the Vendicari Nature Reserve, famous for its beaches, wildlife, and flamingos. With beaches, culture, and nature all close by, this corner of Sicily offers endless variety.
