Location & Local Information

Barbados is an island that, besides its impeccable natural beauty has plenty to see and do. Just a 30-minute drive away lives the Pelican Village Craft Centre in Bridgetown. This is where you come if you want to discover the true artisans of Barbados. Located in Pelican Village, which makes for a pretty picture in itself, the centre has some of the best locally produced and handmade arts and crafts on the island. The village is full of quaint and traditional chattel houses that are occupied by various small businesses.

The small shopping centre houses items that will make perfect souvenirs and gifts. From hand-painted glass creations to ceramics, carvings and sculptures, the shops exude local talent that has largely gone unnoticed, and has become somewhat of a secret waiting for lucky shoppers to discover.

By embarking on another 30-minute drive, you will find The James Street Methodist Church. The church is part of many churches that represent various dominations in Bridgetown. Located on a quiet side street amongst the popular shopping areas, you can visit here to participate in religious services or if you're not religious, simply savour a quiet meditation. The church boasts a classic design and Venetian portico, which were additions that were part of the re-building process added after the church was burnt down in 1823.
