Location & Local Information

Days out by the sea are within quick and easy reach when staying at Villa Vitomira. Duće's coastline is close by; with a beautiful sandy stretch just a five-minute walk away. It's the perfect opportunity to make a picnic and head down to the beach to enjoy a leisurely lunch while relaxing on the fine sand.

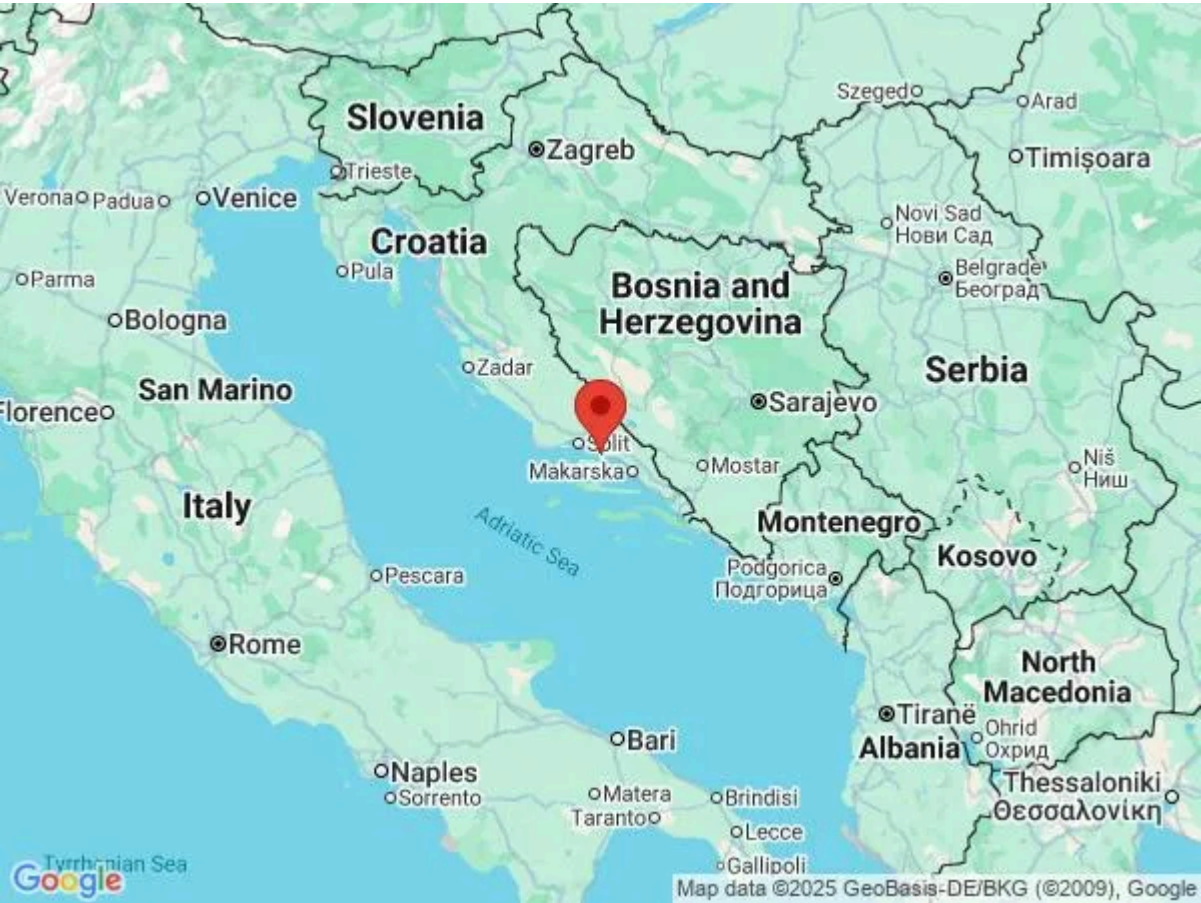

There are a few cafés and restaurants here too – should you prefer to have some local food cooked for you. As well as the calm, clear sea offering safe swimming conditions, you can also go on a boat trip to nearby Brac Island.

Omiš is just a 10-minute drive away from the villa and is a great place to enjoy a day out with the whole family. This port town is famous for having been home to pirates during the 13th and 14th centuries. However, these days, it's now safe to explore the city without the threat of being made to walk the plank!

Omiš is full of historical attractions, including the 13th-century Mirabella Fortress. This impressive structure sits just behind the old town area with its narrow streets lined with ancient churches and a Franciscan Monastery.

Another must-visit spot along the coast is Split, with it being the second-largest city in Croatia and around 30 minutes away by car. Its most famous site is Diocletian's Palace, a 4th-century building that sits at the heart of the city.

Another excellent place also built during the 4th century is Saint Domnius Cathedral. It features a beautiful bell tower that you can climb up to take in stunning views over Split and the sea beyond.
