Villa Half Moon

Region: Holetown Sleeps: 8

Overview

Imagine lounging by your private infinity pool, gazing out over the sparkling Caribbean Sea as waves roll onto the beach below. Dreamy, right? Welcome to Villa Half Moon, a one-of-a-kind, custom-designed retreat perched on a ridge along Barbados' stunning west coast. While the villa enjoys breathtaking panoramic ocean views, beach access is just a short drive away.

Designed in a striking half-moon crescent shape, the villa has been thoughtfully created to maximise the spectacular sea views from every room. Ivy-covered Italian-style columns and elegant arches add a timeless sense of luxury and charm throughout the property.

Step through the central entrance into the open-plan living space, where the garden, infinity pool and ocean take centre stage. It's the perfect setting for slow mornings with fresh coffee and juice, or unforgettable evenings watching the sunset melt into the horizon.

The master suite sits at the northern tip of the crescent, opening onto a private terrace with direct access to the pool deck. Its en-suite features a soaking tub and an open-air shower for a truly indulgent experience. Two additional bedrooms are also located in the northern wing, each with en-suite bathrooms and open-air showers, while one can interconnect with the master suite, making it ideal for families travelling with children.

In the southern wing, you'll find the fourth en-suite bedroom alongside the open-plan dining area, indoor garden and spacious, fully equipped kitchen. Whether dining indoors or preparing local delicacies to enjoy with an ocean backdrop, every moment here feels special.

Outside, Villa Half Moon truly shines. From cooling off in the infinity pool to relaxing on sun loungers under the Caribbean sun, every corner has been designed to make the most of the uninterrupted sea views and laid-back island lifestyle.

Location & Local Information

Barbados is a dream - crystal clear oceans, sandy beaches that go on for miles and plenty of unspoilt, natural wonders to explore and appreciate. What's more, the weather is equally as dream-like, with temperatures that are not unbearably hot thanks to the sea breeze you can feel the sun on your face.

It goes without saying that many of your vacation days will be spent on the beach, sipping your toes in the waters and catching some sun. Some of the most popular, must visit beaches in Barbados include Mullins Beach, Gibbes Beach, Accra Beach and Paynes Bay. Many of these beaches offer facilities such as changing rooms, bathrooms, restaurants and beach bars, so you can stay on the beach long after the sun goes down.

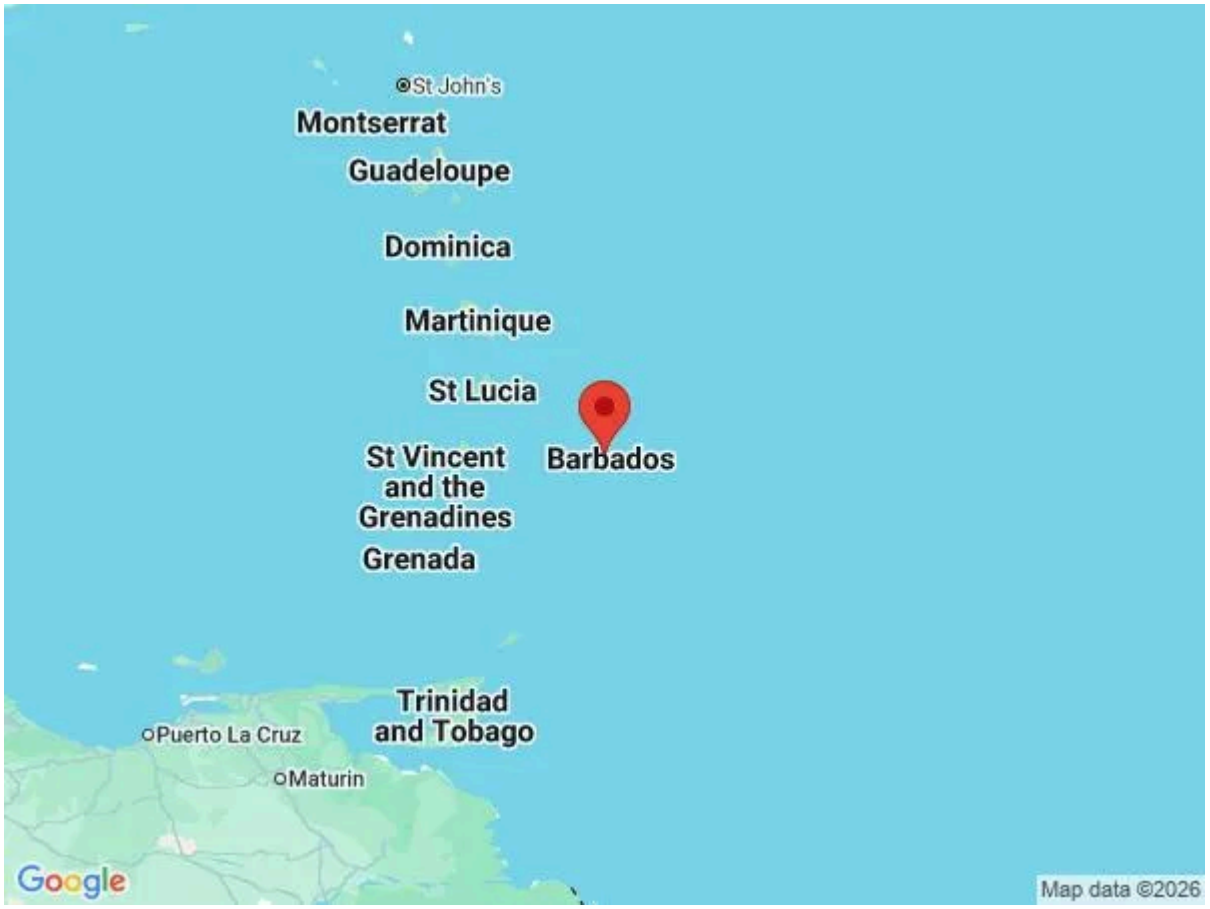

There is, of course, plenty more to see and do than beaches. Head inland and explore a plantation, immersing yourself in the culture that is so rich in Barbados. You can also wander around the main centre Bridgetown, which is a UNESCO world site and the second largest town, Speightstown, the second largest centre is a quaint spot with architecture dating back to the early settlement of Barbados and is also well worth a visit.

A trip to Barbados isn't complete without some rum - for which Barbados is internationally recognised for - and also the local delicacy, flying fish.

All of these spots are close to the Villa, which is located This Villa is located on a ridge overlooking the West Coast of Barbados and the sparkling Caribbean Sea. It's an ideal location, close to beach bars, restaurants and Shawn's fruit and vegetable shop so you can pick up fresh essentials.
