

La Poetessa

Region: Florence Sleeps: 10

Overview

La Poetessa is a stunning Tuscan retreat, nestled in the hills around Florence in the landscape that once inspired Dante. Recently restored, this historic mansion combines literary heritage with refined comfort, offering a unique escape in one of Italy's most artistic regions.

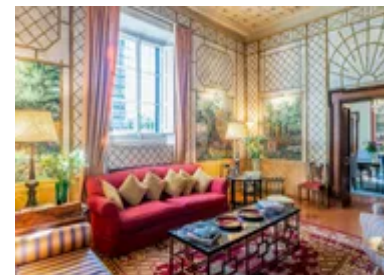

Set within private, manicured grounds, the villa exudes tranquillity and charm. Inside, elegant yet welcoming interiors blend period character with modern amenities. The dining room, crowned by a coloured glass chandelier, is a refined space for group meals, while the luminous drawing room in warm hues of salmon and yellow provides a stylish place to relax. Guests can also retreat to the conservatory, bijoux study, or farmhouse-style kitchen with state-of-the-art fittings.

Accommodating up to ten guests, La Poetessa offers five beautiful bedrooms, each with its own bathroom. Decorated in soft pistachio, taupe, or playful pink, the rooms feature antique furnishings, cotton linens, and regal details. The bathrooms are equally opulent, complete with chandeliers and elegant colour schemes.

Outdoors, the villa is just as enchanting. A covered veranda sets the scene for al fresco dining, while terraces with loungers invite you to soak in the views. The gardens, shaded by pines and lined with pink hydrangeas, offer pathways to explore and moments of quiet reflection. The highlight is the inviting swimming pool, surrounded by pristine lawns, alongside a bubbling hot tub for six.

Just a short drive away lies Florence, the jewel of Tuscany and the cradle of the Renaissance. The city is home to some of the world's greatest artistic and architectural masterpieces, from Brunelleschi's iconic terracotta-domed Duomo and Giotto's bell tower to Michelangelo's David at the Galleria dell'Accademia. At the Uffizi Gallery, marvel at Botticelli's The Birth of Venus and works by da Vinci, while wandering Florence's atmospheric piazzas, bridges, and hidden lanes.

The surrounding region is equally rich in cultural heritage and natural beauty.
